

In Loving Memory of Velvet Dawn Morris

November 19, 1965 ~ February 16, 2025

Memories of Her

Memories of her linger in my mind
The feelings we shared were loving and kind.
So now and then when I recall,
I remember these things best of all.
I remember her voice, so soft and sincere.
I remember when she held my hand,
The feeling in my heart was so lively and grand.
I remember her touch and what she used to say,
I wish so much she never gone away.
