

Active Pallbearers

Brian Meankins Jr.
Shacory Williams
Jaron London

Montrell Williams
Randal Price
Ian Thompson

Terry McKnight

Honorary Pallbearers
Nephews and Great Nephews

Acknowledgement

Our Family wish to express their sincere appreciation to each of you for the many kind expressions of love, compassion and support during our time of bereavement. We now know better how to comfort others, because of the sympathy and kindness shown to us. We thank you and may the Lord continue to bless each of you.

Thine Earthly Bed
Cedars Memorial Garden
Mineola, TX. 75773

Granny

You are near, even if we don't see you.
You are with me even if you are far away.

You are in my heart, in my thoughts and in my life always, you will also be in my prayers. By my side as I go through the rest of my life.

Love you Always,

Noriah and Alexis

Services Entrusted To London's Mortuary

"Providing A Dignified and Comforting Memory"

Ph (903)569-5404

Fax (903) 569-5402

www.londonmortuary.com

Robin London, Funeral Director/Embalmer

Rodney London, Owner/ Manager

Celebration of Life

Opal Jean Williams

September 25, 1956

December 24, 2024

~Services~

Saturday, January 4, 2025

12:00 Noon

East Chapel C.M.E. Church

1011 S. Pacific St. Mineola, TX 75773

Reverend Johnnie Brager, Pastor

Reverend Ralph Caraway, Sr. /Eulogist

St. Louis Baptist Church

Tyler, Texas 75701

Obituary

Opal Jean Williams, cherished mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away in Mineola, Texas, on December 24, 2024, at the age of 68. Born on September 25, 1956, in Mineola, Opal was the sixth of eight children born to Leon and Minnie Lee Williams. She grew up in a loving household filled with the warmth of family.

From a young age, Opal demonstrated a strong commitment to her faith, joining the Sidney Temple C.O.G.I.C. community early in her life. Following her educational pursuits, Opal graduated from Mineola High School in 1975, showcasing her determination and dedication to her studies.

Later in her life, Opal joyfully married Johnny Sam Williams, embracing the love and companionship that this union brought. Together they built a life filled with memories, laughter, and an enduring bond.

Opal was a devoted mother to her beloved daughter, Regina Williams, and a proud grandmother to her two granddaughters, Nariah Stark and Alexis Starks. Her love for her family was immeasurable and her nurturing spirit will be deeply missed.

Opal is survived by her loving daughter and granddaughters, as well as her three sisters: Linda Smith, Gladys Tuck (Cecil), and Stephanie Brown (Jerry). She leaves behind a legacy of love and kindness that will be cherished by her nieces, nephews, and a multitude of family and friends who had the privilege of knowing her.

She is predeceased by her parents, Leon and Minnie Lee Williams, as well as her sisters Thomisena Williams and Nora Coleman, and her brothers Stanley Williams and Leon Williams. Their memories remain intertwined with hers, highlighting the profound connections she held throughout her life.

Order of Service

Prelude.....Soft Music
Processional .....Clergy, Pallbearers, Family
Old Testament.....
New Testament.....
Prayer.....Reverend Johnnie Brager
Solo.....Latrechia James Resolution.....
Remarks .....(Limit 2 minutes)
Solo.....Chris Gibson
Eulogy .....Reverend Ralph Caraway, Sr.
Parting View.....London's Mortuary
Recessional.....Soft Music

Forever In My Heart , Mom
Love your daughter.

Regina

