

A Message from My Heart

To my beloved family,

If I could gather you all together one more time, I would simply smile, because being surrounded by family was one of the greatest joys of my life. I hope you remember the laughter, the cookouts, the reunions, the conversations, and all those little moments that may have seemed ordinary but became some of our most precious memories.

Please don't let your hearts be consumed by the sadness of my leaving. Instead, remember me for the woman I was—the woman who loved her family, enjoyed dressing up, trying a new hairstyle, having a good time, and making memories with the people she loved.

To my children and grandchildren, you will forever hold a special place in my heart. Continue to love one another. Continue to grow. Continue to believe in yourselves and become everything you were created to be. There is nothing that could ever change the love I have for you.

To my mother, my brothers and sisters, and all of my family, thank you for loving me, standing beside me, and sharing this journey called life. Hold on to one another. When you miss me, find comfort in each other and remember that the love we shared is something death can never take away.

And when you think of me, please smile.

Remember my smile. Remember my laughter. Remember the good times. Remember the love.

My earthly journey may have come to an end, but I pray the love I gave you will continue to live in your hearts and in the way you love one another.

Don't say goodbye with only tears. Celebrate me with love. Gather together. Laugh a little louder. Hug a little tighter. Make the memories I would want you to make.

I may no longer be where you can see me, but I will always be a part of you.

Until we meet again,
keep my love in your hearts,
keep my memory close,
and most of all—keep smiling.

With all my love,
Latrice

May 20, 1975 – August 16, 2026

There are some lives that are remembered not simply by the years they lived, but by the love they gave, the joy they shared, and the light they brought into the lives of others. Latrice Shawndrell Tyson-Debique was one of those lives.

Born on May 20, 1975, in Quincy, Florida, to the now-late Lawrence Tyson and Mary Showers, Latrice was a woman whose caring heart, charismatic spirit, and beautiful smile made her presence unforgettable. She had a way of enjoying life and reminding those around her to do the same. Latrice loved “good” times—moments filled with laughter, family, fellowship, and the people who made life special.

Family was at the heart of who Latrice was. She treasured cookouts, family reunions, and opportunities to gather with those she loved. She understood that some of life’s greatest blessings are found in ordinary moments shared with family. In the latter years of her life, Latrice became especially devoted to her grandchildren and to her own journey of personal growth. She embraced the opportunity to become more intentional about herself, her family, and the life she was creating.

Latrice also had a natural love for fashion and beauty. She enjoyed dressing up, looking her best, and trying new hairstyles. Her sense of style was an extension of her personality—confident, expressive, and uniquely Latrice. She knew how to make an entrance, but it was her warmth and personality that people remembered long after she left the room.

And then there was her smile.

For those who knew Latrice, her smile said so much. It carried her joy, her personality, and her ability to find happiness in the moments life gave her. When her loved ones speak of her, they hope her smile will be among the first things remembered—a beautiful reminder of a woman who loved deeply, lived boldly, and brought her own special light wherever she went.

Latrice leaves a beautiful legacy of love to her children, Christian Debique, Rocceis Robinson, Brandon Debique, and Kyree Debique; her mother, Mary Showers; father, Lawrence Tyson and beloved step-father, James Showers; her siblings, Kianni Swoll, Aerial Showers, Tadrik Showers, Lawrence Tyson, Jr., and Deandre Showers; her grandchildren; and a host of relatives, friends, and loved ones who will forever carry her memory in their hearts.

Her family will remember her in the colors she loved, the beauty of calla lilies, the laughter shared at family gatherings, the confidence she carried in her fashion, and the countless memories created along the way.

Although her earthly journey has come to an end, Latrice’s story does not end here. Love does not cease when life does. The woman she was, the memories she created, and the love she poured into her family will continue through every life she touched.

Today, we do not simply mourn Latrice’s passing. We celebrate the gift of her life. We celebrate the daughter, mother, sister, grandmother, family member, and friend she was. We celebrate her caring heart, her charismatic spirit, her love of family, and that beautiful smile that could speak without saying a word.

May those who loved Latrice find peace in the memories they shared, strength in the love she gave, and comfort in knowing that her presence will forever remain a part of their lives.

Her journey on earth has ended, but her love continues.
Her voice may be quiet, but her memories speak.
Her presence may be missed, but her spirit remains.
And her smile—her beautiful smile—will live forever in the hearts of those who loved her.

Rest peacefully, Latrice Shawndrell Tyson-Debique.
You were loved. You are missed. And you will never be forgotten.

A Final Reflection

Her smile brought light, her love brought warmth, and her presence made life a little more beautiful. Though she has journeyed from our sight, the love she shared and the memories she created will remain forever. May we carry her smile in our hearts, cherish the moments we shared, and find comfort in knowing that a life so deeply loved can never truly be forgotten.

Rest peacefully, Latrice.

Your love remains, your memory lives on, and your beautiful smile will forever shine in our hearts.
