Reflections

"A Phenomenal Woman"

Sherry Jean Smith, daughter of Frankie and the late Robert Smith, was born September 16, 1964, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Sherry; Celebration Queen--Supportive Mother. Difficult to get along with - yet easy to Love. Mother, Daughter, Wife, Sister, Provider, Teacher and Care Giver. All these words and more describe a woman who left us too soon but not too soon for the Lord.

Sherry graduated from Taft High School, Class of 1982. Afterwards, Sherry went on to attend University of Cincinnati, she went on to become a successful entrepreneur doing what she loved, caring for children.

Sherry loved to travel and love to have fun. She loved her family and always kept her door and heart open for those in need. Her home was often the place to celebrate a birthday, holiday or a cookout. Despite her ongoing illness, Sherry was full of life.

Sherry was the middle child of three and a true leader. She leaves to cherish her memories and carry on her legacy; mother, Frankie Smith; husband, Garfield Thompson; a devoted and loving daughter, Darlene Allen; son, Omar Thompson; sisters, Lisa Smith and Inger Sherman; nephew, Joshua Sherman and niece, Larissa David. Sherry also leaves to cherish her memory a few devoted friends; Wendell Allen, Darius, Jordan and Jordan Allen; her best friend, Judy Cox and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

*You fought a good fight.
Sherry, Mama, Friend, Lover of Life.
Fly High! Fly Free!*

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best..

*I shall pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do or any kindness I can show to any human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for
I shall not pass this way again.*

*Gone But Never Forgotten
The Best Mom Ever!!!!*
