REMEMBERING ANGELA

And god shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away "

Revelations 21:4

God called Angela Tucker home to eternal rest on August 12, 2020

Angela was born in Washington DC on February 9, 1971 to the late Betty Jean Davis of North Carolina and Richard Lorenzo Wilson of Virginia. Angela attended the District of Columbia Public Schools, graduating from Anacostia High School.

Angela was loved by so many and known for always making people laugh. She has an incredible personality. She loved her family and enjoyed attending family functions. She was known for her great conversation and her favorite color was purple.

She leaves to cherish her fondest memories, Her husband, Hardy Tucker from Washington DC; three children, Harvey Tucker, Delonzia Tucker and Aliyah Tucker; one step daughter, Kiyah Avent; three step grandchild; one mother in law, Eunice Tucker. She also leaves to cherish, one sister, Regina Felica Wilson, of Washington DC; three special sisters, Tangie King, Alethes Barnes, Ricia Jones, two brothers Richard lee and Raymond Day from Washington DC, seven beautiful nieces. Tangina Pride. Destiny Barnes, Monae Jones, Kishawna Wilson, Kenyetta Wilson, Blessing Wright, Janae Caesar; five nephews, Donnell Wilson, Carlson Wilson, Dominique Pride, Stephen Barnes and Kenneth Wilson; aunts an uncles Gerald Cox, Melvin Mills, James Cox, Curtis Lemons Pattie Lemons, Sandra Lemons, Annarie Cox; Dynesti Barnes and Antonio Barnes and a host of other family and so many great friends.

After all we've been through there is nothing no one could do. We loved each other just like we loved our mothers. No matter the circumstances we still had second chances. You were the very best wife but sometimes I let alcohol ruin my life, but through everything we d'till hd everything. At the end of it all I never let you fall. You were my rock and I'm going to take care of our flock (kids) $

Love Eternally, your Husband, Hardy

Washington National Cemetery

You were there when
we took our first steps,
And went unsteadily across the floor.
You pushed and prodded: encouraged and guided,
Until our steps took us out the door...
You worry now "Are they ok?"
Is there more you could have done?
As we walk the paths of our unknown
You wonder "Where have my children gone?"
Where we are is where you have led us,
With your special love you showed us a way,
To believe in ourselves and the decisions we make.
Taking on the challenge of life day-to-day.
And where we go you can be sure,
In spirit you shall never be alone.
For where you are is what matters most to us,
Because to us that will always be home..."

It's time too say my goodbyes
it's still so hard too let go of the pain
no matter how hard I try

You were one special mother
With lots of love to share and knowing you are no longer
coming back
I love you dearly

and through the pain will pass on
And time will heal the pain
somehow life without you will never be the same mommy

SOUL SET FREE

When I have come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your heads bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.
