

Letter from Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say
I know how much you love me as much as I love you and each time you think of me
I know you will miss me too
When tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right there in your heart

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Bryan E. Blount, 53, of Red Bank, New Jersey passed away unexpectedly on July 7, 2019. He was born September 22, 1965 at Mount Sinai Hospital, New York, NY.

Bryan graduated from Red Bank Regional High School in 1983. He then worked for an automotive company in Lakewood, NJ. However, he has been in the Auto Industry for 32 years. Bryan was a perfectionist and took pride in everything he did. He enjoyed Formula Racing, sports, and various outdoor activities.

Bryan was a member of Pilgrim Baptist Church in Red Bank, NJ, where he served for many years on The Ushers Ministry. Bryan also served in Pilgrim's Men's Ministry, where he was particularly proficient in making grits for breakfast celebrations.

Bryan is survived by his mother; Mrs. Wilhelmina Blount; his children, Bernard, Brianna, and James Blount; his brother, Jeffery (his wife Catherine Blount); his sister, Sharon Blount; lifelong friend Jesse Moore and a loving family of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. He is predeceased by his paternal grandmother Mrs. Rosella Blount and his father, Mr. James Z. Blount.
