

I Am Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following path God has chosen for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've now found at the end of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief,
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee,
God wanted me now... He set me free.*

Life Reflections

James Herbert Jenkins, affectionately known as “Butch,” was born on July 19, 1957, at Tuomey Hospital in Sumter, South Carolina. On Tuesday, March 17, 2026, he peacefully departed this life.

Butch was the beloved son of Priscilla Frame, the late Thomas Frame, and the late James Jenkins. At an early age, he was baptized at Second Baptist Church in Mount Holly, New Jersey,

He was educated in the Sumter County school system and graduated from Hillcrest High School in 1975. Throughout his life, Butch cherished the simple joys and found happiness in everyday moments.

He was widely known for his infectious laughter and warm spirit. His ability to find humor even during life’s challenges was a true reflection of his outlook and character, bringing comfort and smiles to those around him.

Butch will always be remembered as a beloved son and brother and a valued member of the family. His life touched many, and he will be remembered with kindness, warmth, and quiet appreciation. He now rests in eternal peace—forever loved and never forgotten.

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted mother, Priscilla Frame; his siblings, Constance (Joe), Janice, and Patricia (Tony); and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and dear friends.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Jacqueline, and is now reunited with loved ones who have gone before him.
