I'm There Inside Your Heart

Right now I'm in a different place
And though we seem apart
I'm closer than I ever was,
I'm there inside your heart.

I'm with you when you greet each day
And while the sun shines bright
I'm there to share the sunsets, too
I'm with you every night.

I'm with you when the times are good
To share a laugh or two,
And if a tear should start to fall
I'll still be there for you.

And when that day arrives
That we no longer are apart,
I'll smile and hold you close to me,
Forever in my heart.

Obituary

On August 10, 2026, Radell Amos Hensley, lovingly called “Pluke” followed the Lord’s hand and entered his eternal home where he will once again meet his father, Ernest Hensley, Jr., mother, Nannie Randolph Hensley, brothers, Larry McKinly Hensley, Reginald Leray Hensley and Larry Dillard who preceded him in death.

Radell was born in Caswell County to Ernest Hensley, Jr. and Nannie Randolph Hensley on May 23, 1948.

Everyone who knew Radell knew that he loved his family. He was a kind, loving and giving person and will be missed by many. He would give you his last. He attended Lincoln Elementary and Booker T. Washington High School.

In addition to his father, mother and brothers, those left to cherish his memories are; brothers, Alfordia “Mickey” Hensley of Eden, NC, Eric “Ed” Hensley (Tasha) of Eden, NC; sisters, Bessie Mills Blackstock of Eden, NC, Vickie Jean Scott (John) of Reidsville, NC, Therese Hensley and Theresa Slade of Greensboro, NC; extended family, Carolyn Courts, Joan Courts, Ronnie Courts, Adorian (George) Courts of Reidsville, NC and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

John 14: 1-3

“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.”
