OBITUARY

Charles Baze passed peacefully away on Sunday, October 11, 2026, in Cleburne. He was born on March 29, 1950, in Cleburne.

Charles was a minister for almost 50 years and a faithful deacon at Alvarado Full Gospel Church. A true man of God, he lived his beliefs in the way he cared for others, helped anyone he could, and devoted himself to ministry both inside and outside the church. His work in jail ministry reflected his compassionate heart and his desire to reach people with hope, prayer, and encouragement.

He will be remembered as a jokester who loved everyone and brought warmth to those around him. Charles was a faithful man whose life touched many through kindness, generosity, and his willingness to serve. He loved his family deeply and was a loving father and grandfather. He taught his family how to pray and reminded them that God was always there. His example of faith and love will remain a lasting gift to those who knew him. Charles was truly loved by his family, and his memory will continue to live in the hearts of all who were blessed to share in his life and witness his unwavering faith.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Bennie G, Baze and Emma Lee Baze; granddaughter, Stacie Bradshaw, and siblings, Bennie Ray Baze and Brenda Jean Rice.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

CHARLES BAZE

Dad

He never looked for praises
He was never one to boast
He just went on quietly working
For the ones he loved the most
His dreams were seldom spoken
His wants were very few
And most of the time his worries
Went unspoken too.
He was there...A firm foundation
Through all our storms of life
A sturdy hand to hold on to
In times of stress and strife.
A true friend we could turn to
When times were good or bad
One of our greatest blessings
The man that we called Dad
