

ORDER OF SERVICES

CHAIRMAN Stewart Spencer
SONG 140 Life Without End - At Last!
OPENING PRAYER Stewart Spencer
OBITUARY READING Antonie Kimble
DISCOURSE William Perry
SONG 151 He Will Call
CLOSING PRAYER Cleotha O'Banner

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Each call, each visit, every prayer,
Has lifted us up
Your presence has been a rare comfort,
And for this, we thank you.
Though words can't fully capture your compassion and kindness,
Your support has helped us through,
In this time, we've found a place,
To feel the true love of family and friends.

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to Scott's Memorial Funeral Home for their compassionate and professional service during this difficult time.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Earl H. Jones, Jr.

October 18, 1961 - November 25, 2024

Memorial Service
Saturday, November 30, 2024
1:00 p.m.
Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses
Yazoo City, Mississippi

Obituary

Earl Henry Jones, Jr., born October 18, 1961, in Yazoo City, MS, peacefully passed away on November 25, 2024, at his home in Yazoo City, Mississippi. He was preceded in death by his parents Earl Henry Jones, Sr. and Laura Jones.

Earl was a devoted husband to Sharon Jones, with whom he celebrated five years of marriage this December. Together, they shared countless moments of love, joy, and spiritual devotion, supporting one another in their worship and regular pioneer ministry.

Having dedicated his life to Jehovah, Earl was baptized on July 9, 1988, at a convention in Gadsden, Alabama. He unselfishly shared his faith with others including many family members and friends.

Throughout his life, he lived in various locations but chose Yazoo City, Mississippi, as his final home in his later years.

Truck driving was one of Earl's primary professions, and it gave him the opportunity to travel to many different places. One of his notable experiences was delivering construction supplies to a site at the headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Earl found great joy in bowling, yard work, and helping others, and loved spending time walking his two dogs, Pepper and AJ.

Earl faithfully supported both congregations in Yazoo City, serving as a ministerial servant and later as an elder. He deeply loved ministering to the congregation and was a consistent presence at the meetings until illness made it difficult for him to attend. Even then, he continued to participate via Zoom, offering thoughtful and impactful comments. When he was able to be there in person, Earl always greeted everyone with a warm smile, even on days when he wasn't feeling his best.

Earl held his wife, Sharon, in the highest regard, deeply appreciating her unwavering care and devotion. He loved his children Lateff "Terrell" Jones, Sr. (Jessica) of Marion, Iowa, Ebony Lee (Ryan) of Hanover Park, Illinois, Elisha Jones-Brown (Antaeus) of Naperville, Illinois and bonus children Sheronda Rhodes (Quintin), Traneal Kimble (Antonie), Stacy Dorsey and Jerorrous Dorsey, who brought joy to his life. His sisters Catherine Jones and Dorothy Finely (Tyrone) both of Chicago, Illinois, Rose Felton (Major) of Yazoo City, MS and Margaret Brooks (George) of St. Paul, Minnesota and brother Jimmy Thomas of Jackson, MS, all held a very special place in his heart. Earl adored his 14 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. And his aunts, uncles, and cousins were also very dear to him. He made many lifelong friends, each of whom held a special place in his life.

As Earl faced the end of his journey, he wanted to share this message with everyone:

"I love you, and there's nothing you can do about it."

He will be deeply missed.