

God Saw the Road

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hill was hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."

The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights have passed.
The ever-patient worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

God saw that you were weary
So He did what He knows best.
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered, "Come and rest."

You bid no one a last farewell,
Not even a goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.

The Best

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be.
So, He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to ME."
With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating.
Hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Mr. Blaine LaVelle Youngblood

My son, Blaine LaVelle Youngblood, passed quietly into eternal life on Sunday, September 21, 2025, at the age of 62 years. He was born on September 21, 1963, in Lima, Ohio, to John Youngblood and Joyce Cook.

Blaine had his birthday party in Heaven this year, with God's angels and all of his family and friends who had gone on before him! Can you imagine the party? He had a hallelujah good time! Blaine will be remembered as a loving son, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, uncle, brother, cousin, and friend. He will also be remembered by his best friends, Calvin Page, Willie Shaw, Brandel Price, and his cousin, James Cook, who was like a brother.

Blaine enjoyed fishing, gardening, playing dominoes and cards, watching westerns, riding his bike, and watching his favorite sitcom, Sanford and Son. He also loved spending time with his family and friends. Blaine will be greatly missed by family and friends who loved him dearly.

Blaine leaves to cherish loving memories his mother, Joyce Toney; son, Keith Roby; sisters, Dorothy Williams, Belinda Beck, and Monique Toney; grandchildren, Chardaney Houston, MarKeith Roby, Shon Fellmen, Layla Hernandez, Shernice Moore, A'Vannist Houston, Vondell Houston, and Tysha Martin; great-grandchildren, Tremell Harper and Nasya Marr.

Blaine was preceded in death by his father, John Youngblood, Jr.; grandfathers, John Youngblood, Sr., and Nathaniel Cook; grandmothers, Mary Cook and Louise Youngblood; one daughter, Vontysha Houston-Martin; grandson, Delano Martin, Jr.; his brother, Manison Toney, Sr., and nephew, Larry D. Toney.

The family would like to express special thanks to Pastor Christopher V. Pryor, Elder Shawn Bivens, Sr., Mother Barbara Sane, and Victorious Believers Ministries church family for the love, support, and prayers during our bereavement.
