

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Acknowledgments

In this time of bereavement, we still say God is in CONTROL. Keep praying for our family that God will get the glory from our lives. The family would like to acknowledge with deep gratitude the expressions of love and concern towards us.

Thank you to all family and friends for your prayers, loving support, contributions, flowers, cards, and gifts of love during this time of Shirley Ann Coleman's transition.

Special Acknowledgment and Thanks

The family would like to give a special THANK YOU to Committed To Care, Inc.'s staff for their years of support, love, tolerance, care, and stability that you all gave our sister Shirley. Your care for her allowed us as a family to be able to sleep at night with no worries.

We, the family, would like to say a special thank you to Forever Praise Ministries International for your warm and welcoming hospitality and to Mercy West Hospital Hospice for their thoughtful and gentle care.

Known for Excellence. Trusted for Value.

Obituary

Shirley Ann Coleman, the fifth child of the late James Farmer Sr. and Geneva Sorrells Farmer, passed away peacefully on Friday, May 30, 2025, at the age of 70. She was called home to be with the Lord.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Coleman Sr.; her son, Timothy Brown; her brothers, Gary and Terry Farmer; and her sister, Sheila Farmer.

Shirley graduated from Gilford School and later worked at ViaQuest for several years until she became fully disabled.

Shirley never met a stranger. Her warm smile, unforgettable voice, and gift of conversation left a lasting impression on everyone she met. She was especially fond of watching YouTube and spent many hours enjoying past and present church services.

Shirley was one of nine siblings. She is survived by her brothers, James Farmer Jr. and Stanley Farmer, and her sisters, Karen Farmer-Godfrey (Richard), Eva Farmer, and Kim Farmer.

She leaves behind cherished memories for her sons: Robert Coleman Jr., Michael Coleman, and David Coleman; her grandchildren: Hope, Brandon, Alana, Xavier, Mykiara, Michael Jr., Lasheara, David, Shekinyah, Zyra, Devren, and Dearius; and her great-grandchildren: Ka'Zyla and Rahzi.

She is also fondly remembered by her aunts, Jackie and Marsha; her dear friends, Terry Plummer and Carolyn Fitzpatrick; and a host of additional relatives, friends, and loved ones.
