

Footprints

One night I dreamed a dream. I was walking along the beach with my Lord. Across the dark sky flashed a scene from my life. For each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, one belonging to me, and one to my Lord. When the last scene of my life shot before me, I looked back, at the footprints in the sand. There was only one set of footprints. I noticed that this was at the lowest and saddest times of my life. This always bothered me and I questioned the Lord about my dilemma. "Lord, you told me when I decided to follow you, you would walk and talk with me all the way. But I am aware that during the most troublesome times of my life, there is only one set of footprints. I just don't understand why, when I need you most, you leave me." He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you, never, ever during your trials and testings, when you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."
