SHARON MCMINN

AUGUST 30, 1950 - NOVEMBER 1, 2026

CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Sharon Ann Wingo McMinn made her transition to her heavenly home on November 1st, 2026.

Sharon Ann Wingo was born on August 30th, 1950, in Jonesboro AR to H.E and Doris Wingo.

Sharon Ann graduated from Jonesboro High School in 1968, shortly after graduating married Kenneth Lee McKee, who was in the United States Air Force which allowed them to travel to and live in many states. While living in Alaska Sharon and Ken were blessed to be able to foster several children. In 1975 they moved back to Arkansas. During their marriage they were blessed with 3 children of their own.

As a child, Sharon was in love with music. She played piano, violin and guitar. She founded The McMinn Agency which was a voice and music school.

Sharon had many professions including being a court reporter for Pulaski County courthouse for several years; Sharon had a bachelor's degree in hospitality from UALR. Sharon managed multiple hotels including but not limited to, The Legacy Hotel in Little Rock, The Camelot, and Holiday INN Otter Creek. Sharon also had a realtor's license and sold time shares in Hot Springs, Arkansas. She also held a position with the Sherwood Chamber of Commerce.

Sharon founded the Epilepsy Foundation in Arkansas; this foundation allowed her to raise monies for scholarships to help many students with epilepsy.

Sharon met Timothy McMinn, fell in love, and married in January of 1991. Brother Tim, being a Paster of Grace Baptist Church, allowed Sharon to be the music director, where she was able to share her love of Jesus through music. In 1993, Bro. Tim was called to Pastor and Sharon was called as Music Director at Sylvan Hills Community Church, where they remained for 30 years. During that time and after, they lead many souls to the Lord.

Always having to stay busy, Sharon spent her time teaching chair aerobics in multiple locations within Sherwood. This also allowed her to be a blessing to many. In any endeavor, Sharon always shared her love for Christ.

Sharon always had the ability to make anyone who knew her feel better. Even on her bad days and during bad times, Sharon was always sharing her infectious smile and laughter.

Sharon Ann was preceded in death by her father H.E. Wingo, husband Brother Tim McMinn, sister Pam Harrell, and grandson Deklan McKee.

She is survived by her mother, Doris Wingo, daughter LeAnn Beckwith (Glen), sons Jason (Brooke) and Brian McKee, stepsons Timmy (Lori) Jimmy (Stacey) McMinn, granddaughters Sarah Beckwith and Julia McKee, and 2 bonus children Kim Garrett and Rushy Brimer.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to North Hills Baptist Church, 9618 Hwy 107 in Sherwood, Epilepsy Foundation of Arkansas, 6834 Cantrell Rd, Ste 1674, Little Rock, AR 72207, or any charity of your choosing.

Visitation will be on Wednesday, November 11th at Smith North Little Rock Funeral Home at 9:00am, followed by funeral service at 10:00am.

Burial service will be on Thursday, November 12th at Arkansas State Veterans Cemetery in Sherwood at 10:00am.
