

If Roses Grow in Heaven

By Delores M. Garcia

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.

Tell her I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

Her Story...

Tameshia Yvette Lewis was born on Friday, December 5, 1976 at Brookdale Hospital in Brooklyn, NY. God reached out for his angel Tameshia and called her home on Tuesday, June 4, 2024 at 5:44pm.

Mesha had attended Bethlehem Baptist Academy where she graduated from 8th grade. Then she attended Murray Bartrum where she continued her education. After graduating from high school she proceeded in taking some college classes for administrative duties. She did temporary work for a while until she got a full-time job at a mental facility in Brooklyn. Mesha worked there for several years til her health began to decline.

Mesha brought into this world a baby girl Anjoné D. Daniel, on September 12, 1997, who she loved very dearly.

As time went by Mesha's health did not improve, but that did not stop her. She was a strong and courageous woman. Mesha was dedicated to her attendance at church and to the care of her daughter Anjoné and her nephew Quentin whom she had custody of. Her life was filled with laughter and love and she showed a gracious spirit until her light passed on.

Mesha was preceded in death by her parents Juanita and Grant Lewis, and her older sister Janice Brown.

Mesha is survived by her daughter Anjoné Daniel, grandson Chase Brewster, and her nephew Quentin Lewis. She also leaves her siblings: Dawn Lewis, Sean Lewis, and Juanita Bray, nephews- Justin Johnson, Kyle Lewis and Shadarius Lewis, aunt's Grace Lipsey, and especially Vera Hamilton, whose always there, two best friends- Sondra Jenkins, and Veronica Renaud along with a host of cousins, friends, and family.
