Charles Earl Murphy “Rock, Charlie Rock,” 59 of Forestville, MD, entered peaceful rest on October 3, 2025 at Abundance Care Home. He was born in Poughkeepsie, NY on February 13, 1966. He was the son of the late Roger Earl Murphy, Sr. and Doris Pittman Murphy who resides at home. Charles received his education at Poughkeepsie High School. He was a laborer with Chiaramonte Construction in Washington, DC. He also worked at Clark Construction as a welder. Charles had a contagious smile. He was an unapologetic comedian who made everyone laugh and cry at the same time. He loved cooking, playing his music and dancing. He enjoyed driving his Mom to New York and spending time with family and friends. Rock knew everyone and everyone knew Charlie Rock, even young kids.

He was married to Angela Lemos who survives at home in Poughkeepsie, NY. Charles is survived by his devoted Mom, Doris Murphy, four sons: Charles Murphy Jr., and Shemar Parker, of Poughkeepsie, NY; Shiron Murphy of New Jersey, Yasin Miller of Albany, NY; and one daughter, Ne’Char Murphy of Poughkeepsie, NY. He also leaves to cherish his memory, one brother, Roger “Puddin” Murphy, Jr, (Joan) of Albany, NY; three sisters, Sheila Murphy and Sherion Murphy (Terry) all of Forestville, MD, Shalleesha West of Poughkeepsie, NY, and a devoted niece Kichiri Irving (Myles) of Virginia Beach; six grandchildren: Destinee Murphy, Promise Murphy, Phoenix Murphy, Na’Zirah Sanders, Na’Zir Sanders, Nai’Yana Sanders and a host of, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends, along with special caretaker, Jordan Walker and son, Jahari Parker, of Bowie, Maryland.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway
If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane
I would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again

No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knows why

My heart still aches with sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know
But now I know you want me
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store

Since you'll never be forgotten
I pledge to you today
A hallowed place within my heart
Is where you'll always stay.
