

Sara Marie (Nordstrom) Frye, beloved mother, daughter, and friend, passed away on September 13, 2024, leaving behind a radiant legacy of love and laughter. Born on April 26, 1995, Sara brought an undeniable energy into the lives of those who had the pleasure of knowing her. She was embodiment kindness and friendliness, never meeting a stranger and always ready to lend a helping hand.

At the core of Sara's life were her children. She treasured her role as a mother and delighted in the joy of playing with them, filling their lives with warmth and creativity. Her proudest accomplishments included earning her CNA and later her LPN, milestones reflective of her strong dedication to helping others. She worked diligently in various manufacturing positions throughout her career, but it was her compassionate spirit that truly defined her professional path.

Sara's journey through education began at King's Gate Elementary, where her foundations were laid before she graduated from Bethel Acres High School. Her determination led her to Gordon Cooper, where she achieved her CNA and LPN certifications, stepping boldly into a world where she could make a difference.

Sara was a woman of many interests and talents. She took great pleasure in expressing herself creatively and was always up for a good laugh. Friends and family describe her as a fun-loving person who could light up any room with her presence. The memories made with her will forever be cherished, as she had an unparalleled ability to bring joy to those around her.

Family meant everything to Sara. She leaves behind her son, Royce Nordstrom, daughter, Trinity Frye, step-son Jaxon Frye, step-daughter Skylar Frye, loving mother, Shannon Farasyn and husband Kevin, her father, Vern Nordstrom and wife Lori, and her cherished grandmother, Linda Moore. She is also survived by her aunt, Kelly Barnes and her husband Rudy.

Sara is preceded in death by her grandfathers, Warwick B. Moore and Gordon Nordstrom, her grandmother, Scharlene Nielsen, and her uncle, David Nordstrom.

A Song of Sara

*It is Autumn in the world
But Winter in my mind
So I sing a song of Sara, our darling Gigglebee
Born of light and Springtime
With a spirit wild and free
Outrageous in her humor, adventure in her soul
She thought she could climb mountains
And keep her brave heart whole
She colored outside all the lines
Her rules for life were self-defined
She was loving, brave, and kind, our quirky Gigglebee
So I sing a song of Sara
Even tho we are apart
Beloved Gigglebee, you are always in my heart
We had you oh so briefly !
We loved you oh so fiercely!
And thus will we remember thee
Our loving, laughing Gigglebee.*

*Love always
Nana*
