

When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken remember some good I have done, forget that I ever had heartache and remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way, remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my going I would not have you sad for a day, but in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay.

And come in the shade of evening when the sun paints the sky in the west, stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.
