NOT MUCH TIME

Not much time As the clock is ticking from second to minute to hour ..
Are you ready? One day at a time you say?!
As the clock is ticking from second to minute to hour.. Are you ready?
Get your house in order I say keep it that way again I ask?
As the clock is ticking from second to minute to hour.. Are you ready?
Living right or wrong roses are red violets are blue is how the thing usually starts but this time..
As the clock is ticking from second to minute to hour.. Are you ready?
And then as the day turn into night and night into day either way..
As the clock is ticking from second to minute to hour.. Are you ready?
Somethings are inevitable so when I think back & ask myself Are you ready?
This time you were ready I just didn't realize we did Not have much time!
I was not ready!

Love, Timetreus (Granddaughter)

Though named Caldonia, she was affectionately known as Carolyn. She attended the Rock Hill Public Schools and went on to work with the Charlotte Mecklenburg Housing Authority and Bayada Nursing, within the healthcare sector for many years. Her last job was with Visiting Angels.

Carolyn became a Seventh Day Adventist in the early 60’s, and joined Berean Seventh Day Adventist Church in Charlotte, North Carolina, where she was a very active member, singing on the Gospel Choir and serving on the Usher Board. She even taught the lower Sabbath School Primary class. Carolyn remained a devoted Christian woman, spreading the Gospel of the Lord’s second coming to all she encountered until her last breath on the day she loved the most, the Sabbath.

Carolyn leaves to cherish fond memories, her children, Vicky King, Timmy King (Carla), Jimmie King(Queen), and Tony King; ten grandchildren, Montrey Bost, Sr., Monte King (Shawanna), Shaitha Yeargin, Timetreus Nichols, Sheena R.
