

Gone Fishing

If someone should ask for me,
Tell 'em fishing is where I'll be.
I've finished all of my life's chores,
And now I fish on different shores.

The view is grand and the fishing's great,
But I yearn for you as I wait.
I'll save a spot on the river's bend,
For all those I call family and friend.

But for now, head out to sea
And make a cast in memory,
To all the good times that you had,
With me – your partner, your friend, your Dad
And if the fish no longer bite

Or seem no longer worth the fight,
Because it's me that you are missin',
Don't worry – be glad – I've just gone fishin'

In Loving Memory of

George Fuller

1944 - 2025

George Fuller, 81, of Bismarck, formerly of Mandan, passed away on August 14, 2025.

George was born March 3, 1944, in Walhalla, ND, to Melvin and Roseann (Duciaume) Fuller. He graduated from Grafton High School in 1962.

In March of 1965, George enlisted in the U.S. Navy in Fargo, ND. George proudly served his country and was honorably discharged in Norfolk, Virginia, in 1967. He went on to attend ND State College of Science in Wahpeton, graduating in May 1969, with an electrical technician degree.

On July 5, 1968, George married the love of his life, Judy, in Sisseton, SD. Together, they built a life filled with hard work, travel, and family. George spent more than 30 years working as a union electrician, taking jobs across North Dakota, Minnesota, Montana, Wisconsin, Texas, Idaho, Washington, Kansas, Missouri, and Colorado. After retirement, he and Judy enjoyed years of traveling the country in their 5th wheel.

George was a proud 45-year member of the IBEW Local 714 Retiree Club and was a member of the AMVETS. He enjoyed simple pleasures—especially fishing, hunting, and spending time with family.

George is survived by his daughter, Tracy (Greg) Ressler of Sheridan, WY; daughter-in-law, Amanda Fuller of Bismarck; four grandchildren, Abbie Ressler (fiancé, Tristen Stemen), Harrison Fuller, Mason (Taya) Fuller, and Devon Ressler; sisters-in-law, Lenny Fuller and Regina Freije; and several nieces and nephews.

George was preceded in death by his parents; his wife of 52 years, Judy; his son, Clint Fuller; and siblings, Kevin (Pat) Fuller and Ronald Fuller.
