

Psalm 23

"The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me besides the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever"

Obituary

OLLIE WALKER SCOTT, a devoted family man, esteemed veteran, and skilled tradesman, peacefully passed away in his sleep on February 3, 2024, in Cincinnati, Ohio, bidding farewell to a life rich with service, dedication, and accomplishment. Born on July 18, 1940 in Cincinnati, OH, Ollie's journey through life was marked by a tumultuous childhood that included a period of time in a foster home. He was able to rise out that traumatic experience and enter adulthood with an unwavering commitment to his country, his craft, and his community.

Ollie was the second son of the late Lawrence Osmond Scott, Sr., of Cincinnati, OH, and the late Sarah Ruthymae (nee Dardell) Allen, of Chicago, IL. He is survived by the family Matriarch Aunt Patricia (nee Scott) Mundy of Cincinnati, OH, his brother Lawrence Osmond Scott, Jr., of Cincinnati, OH, Barbara (nee Scott) Dempsey, of Vallejo, CA, Roberta Jean (nee Allen) Cole, of Cincinnati, OH, and Lisa Allen of Cincinnati, OH. Ollie leaves three loving children, Darryl Andre' Scott, Sr., of Patterson, CA, David Arnell Scott, of Hague, VA, Angela Scott-Saxton, of Oakland, CA, grandchildren, Darryl Andre' Scott, Jr., of California, Brittany Lea Scott, of Washington, DC, David Arnell Scott, II of Hague, VA, Makeda Nicole (nee Scott) Scott-Jackson of Phoenix, AZ, and Great Grandchildren Jaden, Orell, Yaesean, and Secora. Additionally, Ollie leaves a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and close friends.

Ollie's career was distinguished by his service in the United States Coast Guard, where he rose to the rank of Hull Technician First Class Petty Officer, demonstrating exceptional skill, leadership, and devotion to duty. His exemplary service extended to the United States Naval Reserve, where he continued to honorably serve until his retirement in 1994, leaving a legacy of dedication and valor within the armed forces.

Beyond his military service, Ollie found fulfillment in his work as a member of various Pipefitter Unions, where his talents as a tradesman shone brightly. Renowned for his expertise and precision, Ollie was instrumental in the construction of numerous intricate and distinctive structures across the United States. His craftsmanship and attention to detail left an indelible mark on the American landscapes he helped shape, earning him respect and admiration from colleagues and fellow tradesmen alike.

Outside of his professional endeavors, Ollie was a loving and dedicated father, grandfather, uncle, brother, and friend, whose kindness, generosity, and unwavering support touched the lives of all who knew him. He cherished moments spent with his family and friends finding joy in simple pleasures, and creating special memories that will endure for generations to come.

Additionally, Ollie Scott was a Master Mason 33rd Degree, Honorary Past Imperial Potentate, active as a Shriner, and Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry Prince Hall Affiliation, Northern Jurisdiction, USA, Inc.

In his leisure time, Ollie spent an extraordinary amount of time ensuring his attire and shoes were impeccable. He was known by people as a super "Clean" gentleman! He spent countless hours cutting grass and taking road trips from the east coast to the west coast visiting friends and family, which allowed him to explore new places. His gentle spirit, quick wit, and infectious laughter brought light and warmth to those fortunate enough to share in his company.

Ollie Walker Scott leaves behind a legacy of service, integrity, and love that will continue to inspire and uplift all who were blessed to know him. Though he may have bid farewell to this earthly realm, his memory will live on in the hearts of his beloved family, friends, and colleagues, a testament to a life well-lived and a soul deeply cherished.

In honoring Ollie's memory, let us reflect on the values he held dear – healing, honor, loyalty, and compassion – and strive to emulate the qualities that made him such a beloved presence in the lives of all who were touched by his grace. Though he may have passed into eternity, his spirit will forever remain a guiding light, illuminating our paths with love, wisdom, and enduring inspiration.
