Memories

'THERE IS A REASON'

*They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time or reason,
Will change the way we feel.
For no one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles,
No one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried.
We want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to do without.
There is no night without a dawning,
No Winter without a Spring,
And beyond death's dark horizon,
Our hearts once more will sing.
For those who leave us for a while,
Have only gone away
Out of a restless careworn world,
Into a "Brighter day".*

Memories

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

*Although we cannot see you,
You're with us every day.
The love you gave still guides us,
Though you've gone away.
Your laughter, strength, and kindness
Are treasures time can't part
You live within our memories,
Forever in our hearts.*

Reflections

Robert Dysart, Jr.
July 14, 1936 – October 29, 2025

Robert Dysart, Jr. was born on July 14, 1936, in Union City, Tennessee, to the late Mollie Ingram and Robert Dysart, Sr. He was a lifelong resident of Union City and was known for his strong will, sense of humor, and straightforward personality.

Robert was united in marriage to the late Mary Dysart for 20+ years, and together they shared many years of love, laughter, and family. He was a retiree from the Union City Housing Authority. He was a faithful member of Greater Victory Freewill Baptist Church in Union City, Tennessee, where he found joy in worship and fellowship.

Robert was a man of many interests. He loved rabbit hunting, fishing, collecting guns, and listening to good blues music. Whether sitting by the water with a fishing pole or swapping stories after a hunt, he enjoyed life's simple pleasures. Those who knew him best will remember him as a man who always spoke his mind right, wrong, or indifferent and stood firm in what he believed.

He was preceded in death by his wife; Mary Dysart, siblings; Anna Margaret Thomas, Thomas Dysart, J.B. Dysart, Annie Ruth Edwards, Charles E. Dysart, Bobby Roberson, and Ernest Roberson.

He leaves to cherish his memory three loving children: Michell (Ron) Garrett, Timothy (Kii) Dysart, LaKisha (Lance) Nicholson, stepchildren; Lekesha (Armand) Young, Gregory Steward, eighteen grandchildren; Mychal Foster, Tasheuntai Foster, Ellis Dysart, Shanterrika Dysart, Timothy Dysart Jr., KayCee Dysart, Kenadee Dysart, Kye Dysart, Easten Dysart, Isaiah Dysart, Philip Dysart, DJ Nicholson, Jaylen Nicholson, Isaiah Nicholson, London Nicholson, Elizabeth Bass, Kelvin Steward, Kennedy Steward ten great-grandchildren; Faith Dysart, Malia Dysart, Kii Dysart, Jamarion Foster, Malakai Foster, Kellan Foster, Calih Foster, Yuriah Foster, Mya Hardy, A'riyah Hardy and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends who will forever hold his memory in their hearts.

Though he has transitioned from this life, his spirit, strength, and legacy will live on through those who loved him.

“Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.” — Psalm 30:5
