LIFE REFLECTIONS

Arzakia Lee'Shunti Malajah Milsap

MARCH 27, 2003 – DECEMBER 11, 2022

Arzakia Lee'Shunti Malajah Milsap was born on March 27, 2003, to Arthur Milsap and ZaZa Reed at University Medical Center in Jackson, MS. She graduated from Yazoo City High School Class of 2021. She had aspirations to go to college to further her education.

She leaves to cherish her memories; her loving mother: ZaZa Reed; her loving father: Arthur Milsap; stepmother: Chiquita Milsap; two grandmothers: Helen Evans and Bobbie Johnson; two brothers: Michael Reed and Arthur Milsap, Jr. (Akia); three sisters: Starqueshia Reed, Arneisha Milsap, and Aleeya Milsap; two nieces, one nephew, uncles, aunts, and a host of cousins, great aunts and great uncles and friends.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.

MaMa, we didn't get a chance to see you grow into that fully grown up that I knew you could be. I was very proud of the young lady I saw, and I love you dearly. Gone to soon. You will forever be in our hearts and will never be forgotten.

Love Your Grandmother Bobbie

In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me. My love will persevere through every situation.

Love Grandmother Helen

If tears could build a stairway
and memories were a lane,
I would walk right up to heaven
and bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken,
no time to say goodbye,
You were gone before I knew it and only God knows why.
My heart still aches in sadness and secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose you,
no one will ever know,
but now I know you want me
to mourn for you no more.
To remember all the happy times
life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today,
a hallowed place with my heart is where you'll always stay.

On March 27, 2003, a beautiful doll was born, and we nick name her "Mama". Watching you grow into a beautiful lotus flower over the years has been very amazing. Your sense of humor and your angelic smile was and will always be one of our great attributes we remember of you. Thanks for always being an awesome niece and cousin to my children and me.

Although you left a deep hole in my heart, a thorn in my side. and eyes filled with tears during your transition from earth to heaven, I am grateful to know you are no longer suffering nor hurting from this sinful and cruel world. Mama, I do want you to know your legacy will always live through us and our memories we will keep them alive. To be absent from the body is to be present with our Heavenly Father. Mama, we love you in life and we still love you in death. Mama. It's not good-bye, it's see you later. Rest well in the arms of our savior and save us all a spot.

Love Your Aunt Poo-Poo, Dinky,
Nunu, GB, Nauticalah, Geonni, and Kyla
