God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,

OUR LOVING FATHER

The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,

The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,

Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad

Joseph Allen Williams Jr., affectionately known as “Chico,” was born on May 10, 1954, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to the late Joseph Allen Williams Sr. and Willa Mae Williams. On Saturday, August 22, 2026, Joseph peacefully transitioned to be with his Heavenly Father.

At the age of eleven, Joseph and his family relocated to Bristol, Pennsylvania. He attended FDR Middle School and graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School. He continued his education at Bucks County Community College, where he earned an associate degree. While attending school, Joseph worked at Sears Roebuck, where he consistently exceeded sales goals and received recognition for his outstanding performance, dedication, and strong work ethic.

Joseph began his banking career with New Jersey National Bank (NJNB) as a Loan Modification Specialist. Through his professionalism, leadership, and keen attention to detail, he quickly advanced into a supervisory role. In 1996, NJNB merged with CoreStates Bank, where Joseph continued to build upon his successful career in the financial industry, ultimately attaining the position of Vice President. Throughout his career, he earned the respect and admiration of colleagues and clients alike for his integrity, commitment, and excellence.

Joseph's love for sports was deeply rooted in family tradition. He shared that passion with his children and served as the basketball coach for his sons' teams for several years, creating cherished memories and helping lead them to championship victories. Chico was a devoted Pittsburgh Steelers fan, which often sparked lively and entertaining debates with family and friends who proudly supported the Philadelphia Eagles or Dallas Cowboys. Known throughout Winder Village as the "Godfather," he enjoyed discussing sports and politics and never passed up the opportunity for a friendly card game.

Above all else, Chico took tremendous pride in being a father. He worked tirelessly to provide his children with quality educational opportunities, memorable family vacations, unwavering love, protection, and the benefit of his famous "Joe Duck" life lessons. He treasured long conversations and spending time with his daughters, sons, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and many relatives and friends. As his parents grew older, Joseph lovingly assumed the role of primary caregiver, ensuring they received the care, comfort, support, and dignity they deserved.

Most importantly, Joseph knew the Lord and lived his life grounded in faith, love, and service to others. His caring spirit, wisdom, sense of humor, and generous heart touched countless lives and left a lasting impact on everyone blessed to know him.

Joseph leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, faith, and family that will continue to inspire generations to come. Joe leaves to cherish his memory, his wife Juanrita, sons Troy, Joseph (Jojo)”daughters Whitney, Natalie: son-in-law Rondell Bradley: 11 grandchildren Semiyah, Kier, Kwadir Jeremiah, Jacquell, Ramir, Asiya, Rondell Jr., Raheem, Rakir, Raniya: 2 great grandkids: Ja”Siah, Janiya: brothers Meredith, Brian, Walter and a host of relatives and friends.

Though he will be deeply missed, his memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. Well done, good and faithful servant. His work here is complete, and he now rests peacefully in the presence of his Heavenly Father. “To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

” 2 Corinthians 5:8
