

My Farm

*My farm to me is not just land
Where bare unpainted buildings stand –
To me, my farm is nothing less
Than all created loveliness.*

*My farm is not where I must soil
My hands in endless dreary toil
But where, through seed and swelling pod
I've learned to walk, and talk with God.*

*My farm, to me, is not a place
Outmoded by the modern race
For here, I think, I just see less
Of evil, greed, and selfishness.*

*My farm's a haven – here swells rest,
Security and happiness –
Whate'er befalls the world outside
Here faith and hope and love abide.*

*And so my farm is not just land
Where my bare unpainted buildings stand –
To me, my farm is nothing less
Than all God's hoarded loveliness.*

Donald Wayne Janik 82, passed away peacefully at his home on Sunday, January 22, 2023.

Donald Wayne Janik was born on March 23, 1940 to Cyrill & Lillian (Soulek) Janik in Chamberlain, SD graduating from Kimball High School. He worked at a service station and farmed with his father right outside of Kimball until they purchased the farm south of Pukwana. On July 15, 1960, Donald was united in marriage to Darlene Kindopp and to this union 4 children were born.

Don spent his whole life farming the land & raising livestock, enjoying every minute of the quiet country life. In his earlier years, he enjoyed hunting & fishing. He took great joy in giving tractor rides to his children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

daughters Denise (Joe) Mashek, Debbie Janik, & Darmi (George) Lowe; 6 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Preceding him in death are his parents, Cyrill & Lillian Janik; a brother; three sisters; daughter DeAnn (Harless); and a grandson Jason.
