ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

During these most difficult hours family and good friends are truly a blessing. We thank God for the precious gifts of love, family and friendship. We thank each of you for reminding us that the unchangeable love of God is a fountain of strength and serenity.

May God richly bless each of you as
He continues to sustain us is our prayer.

MY KIERRA

My Baby Girl

My Kierra, my daughter, my firstborn, my light,
You were my blessing from morning to night.

My only girl, my precious child,
Your beautiful heart, your loving smile.

I watched you grow, I watched you shine,
And being your mother was a blessing divine.
No matter how grown, no matter how tall,
You'd always be my baby girl through it all.

I never dreamed that I'd have to say,
"Goodbye, my baby," and watch you go away.
My heart is broken, the tears still flow,
Because a mother should never have to let her daughter go.

But I'll hold your memories close to my heart,
And carry your love though we're worlds apart.
Your laughter, your smile, your beautiful face,
Will forever live in my heart's sacred place.

So sleep peacefully Kierra, my love,
You're now resting with angels above.
Until the day when we meet again,
I'll love you forever—my daughter, my friend.

You were my first, my only girl,
My precious daughter, my whole world.
And no matter where this life may take me,
You'll always be my baby girl,
Kierra Shanice McGee AKA The K3Y

FOREVER

My Key

In Loving Memory of Kierra "The Key"
From TTLynn

My precious Kierra, my Key, my dear,
Losing you is a pain I'll always carry here.
You were my niece, but so much more to me,
A special bond we shared that only we could see.

You were loved so deeply, more than words can say,
And my heart still struggles to understand why you had to go away.
You left this world far too soon,
But your beautiful light will forever shine like the moon.

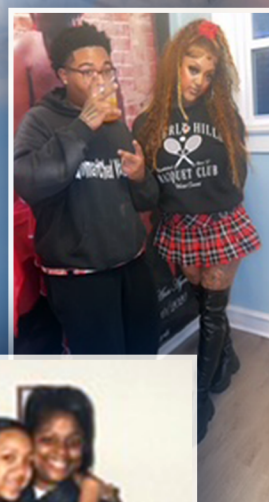

I'll treasure every memory, every laugh and every smile,
And hold our special moments close,
always and forever worthwhile.
Though I cannot hold you or hear your voice,
Loving you forever will always be my choice.

Your daddy, Kenny, will carry you in his heart,
And though this goodbye is breaking us apart,
Your love will remain, through every tear and every prayer,
Because a love like ours will always be there.

So rest peacefully, my sweet Key,
Until the day God brings you back to me.

And forever you will be my Key.

Forever loved, forever missed, forever in my heart.
Love always, TTLynn

IF ROSES Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in Heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for us,
Place them in our Mother's arms
and tell her they're from us.
Tell her we love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
We do it every day,
but there's an ache within our hearts
that will never go away.

KIERRA SHANICE MCGEE

Kierra Shanice McGee, 35, passed away on August 2, 2026 in Kansas City, Missouri. She was born on January 29, 1991, Kansas City, Missouri to Kenneth McGee and Belinda Ayers.

She grew up in Kansas City, Missouri and graduated from De La Salle High School. After high school she worked her first job at Popeye's Chicken as a cashier and frontline worker for 4yrs. Kierra also worked at Wendy's for 3 years as a cashier.

In her beginning years Kierra was baptized at the age of two at Sunlight Missionary Baptist Church. In her later years she became a member of El 'Shaddai International ministries, while she practiced her religion, she was also a praise dancer.

Kierra started a rock band at the age of fourteen where she was the CEO, allowing her to mentor her two close cousins, La'Shantris and Saquan.

Kierra participated in so many activities, hobbies, and played a significant role in community involvement. Fashion became one of the biggest hobbies that lasted until her adulthood. Kierra began modeling, and acting in movies, where she was starring in the Viral 6 tv series "Baddies". She began taking her talent to another level, traveling to different states pursuing her career and appearing on several podcast shows. Kierra became interested in the music world where she became a local rapper, displaying her musical talent. She was known around the world as "Key to The City." Music became her reality; she focused on her music, shaping her unique sound. Kierra performed for the LGBTQ community, parades, and festivals on 18th Vine in Kansas City, which was a milestone for her. Kierra was full of life, love, and brought out the fun in any event she was apart of. Kierra will be missed and forever loved. In her 35 years she was definitely a servant of GOD. FLY HIGH K3Y!

Kierra was preceded into death by her grandmothers, Ruth Ayers and Beatrice McGee; grandfather, Billy Triplett; great grandmother, Alberta Ayers; cousins, DaQuan "DaDa" Ayers, Ericka Wilson, Latefa McGee-Baker.

Kierra is survived by her parents, Kenneth McGee and Belinda Ayers; stepfather, Michael Langford; brothers: Mikah Langford, John Ersery, Kenneth McGee, Avery Triplett, and Tyreek Harry; sisters: Keisha Roland, Kendra McGee, Chanelle Campbell, and Charity McGee; aunts: Lynn McGee, Constance McGee, Angie McGee, Cynthia Ayers, CoCo Ayers, Lilian Ayers, Lorine Ayers, Yolanda Dale, and Doris Blackburn; uncles: Tyrone Ayers, Billy Ayers, Leland Thomas, and Vonzell Stamps; godchildren: Quincy, Loyalty, and Tru; special friends: Bri Strong, Frank Barefield; friends: Jamesha Jones, Shila Steward, Nisha Lee, and Cielo Dilauro and a host of cousins and friends.
