

*A limb has fallen
from the family tree.*

I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."

*Remember the best times,
the laughter, the song.*

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes we're together again.

George Jesse Heustess was born on August 25, 1957, to Charles F. and Lynore (Calder) Heustess in Sacramento, California. He graduated from Rio Linda high school in 1976. George enlisted in the United States Navy and served for a short time before being medically discharged. He was united in marriage with Georgia L. Coy on December 30, 1982, in Sacramento. They were blessed with two children: Kevin and Rene. The family lived in California and Alaska before moving to South Dakota in the early 2000s. While in Alaska, he worked as a mechanic and equipment operator. George was a truck driver all his life and loved spending time on the road.

Celebrating the Life of George Jesse Heustess

George was a member of Latter-Day Saints and was an Elder of the church. He served as a Henry, SD. volunteer firefighter and was a member of the 49s Mining Club when he lived in California. He was a wealth of knowledge. He enjoyed researching, genealogy, fishing, and cooking.
