I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.*

Acknowledgements

A special thank you from our family for the many acts of love, kindness, and support shown to us during the brief sickness of our angel and as we celebrated her homegoing. We are deeply grateful to the staff of UNC Southeastern and Liberty Homecare and Hospice—especially her angels, Felisha, Tracey, and Brittany—for their compassionate care. We would also like to extend heartfelt thanks to Calvary Cornerstone Holiness Church and Westview Pentecostal Holiness Church for their prayers and support.

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance
