The world lost a great man on October 21, 2022, at the age of 90. Harry Earl Brockmeier, Jr. was born February 19, 1932, in Cedar City, Utah to Harry Earl Brockmeier Sr. and Catherine Agnes Littlefield. He was raised in Zion National Park.

He attended Hurricane High School where he was quite accomplished in sports playing football, basketball, track and baseball where he earned the nick name "Home Run Harry". He was a member of the 1949 State Champion Football team.

When he was 14, he started working in the kitchen at the Zion Lodge. While in high school he was offered a job with Standard Oil Company where he worked in Zion National Park, St. George, Bryce Canyon and Beaver, Utah.

He was drafted into the U.S. Army in the spring of 1953. He received his infantry training in Fort Ord, California and was stationed in Korea during the Korean War. After completing his active duty, he received an Honorable Discharge.

He returned to Cedar City where he met Phyllis Gale at Bullock Drug and later married. His career with Standard Oil, took them to Ely Nevada, Burley, Idaho and finally Salt Lake City, where they planted their roots and settled in. He owned the Chevron Station on 600 South in Salt Lake for many years.

Harry loved the outdoors! He enjoyed hunting, swimming, fishing, and golfing. He was a devout fan of the Utah Jazz, BYU sports and the Colorado Rockies baseball team. His hero was John Wayne whom he personally met and had breakfast with at Dick's Café in St. George. He coached youth basketball, baseball, and softball. In fact, he developed and worked to create the first baseball field in Springdale, Utah where he also coached the young team. He was the president and Phyllis was the treasurer of the Girls Bonnet Ball Softball League.

Harry was the most patriotic man we knew. He flew his flag every single day. A highlight of his life was experiencing the Veterans Utah Honor Flight Mission in 2017 at the nation's Capital in Washington DC.

The fondest memories were made at their cabin at Fairview Lakes. Friends, family, and cabin community all came together to BBQ, relax, fish, hunt, hike and share stories.

Harry was quite a character with his quick wit. We would laugh at his made-up songs and sit for hours listening to his stories. To family and friends, he gave nicknames like Twink, Timothy Aloysius, Ricky Ticky Tavo, Abernathy, Matilda, B, Straight Arrow, Brooke and Slick. He was so kind and giving and would help anyone at any time day or night, without hesitation.

Harry and Phyllis came home to southern Utah in 2001, when they moved back to St. George. It brought them closer to their extended family. He is survived by his brother, Greg; children: Debbie (Derk, deceased) Boren, Connie (Gregg) McGregor, Jerry (Juli) Brockmeier, Sharon (Greg) Bishop; 9 grandchildren; and 2 great-grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his wife Phyllis, his parents, two brothers, one sister and a son-in-law.

We would like to give a special thank you to Applegate Home Health and Zions Way Hospice for their excellent care.
