

We Love You,
Daddy.

As I Wait In Heaven

As I wait in heaven and I watch you from afar, I try and let you know with signs, I never went away. I hear you when you're laughing and I watch you as you sleep, I even place my arms around you to calm you as you weep.

I see you wish the days away begging to have me home. So I try and send you signs so you know you're not alone. Don't feel guilty because you have life.

Please live it with joy and glee.

Heaven is truly
beautiful just you wait and see! So live your life laugh again, enjoy yourself, be free. Then I'll know with each breath you take you'll be taking one for me.

Until We Meet Again...

Love Always,
Audree, Kevin, Jordan,
Madison, and Family

Obituary

Aubrey Shawn Lea, the blessed gift of Barbara Graves Price and the late James Stanley Lea, Sr., was born on September 24, 1960. Following a period of illness, he departed this life on Wednesday morning, May 20, 2026, at the Valley Nursing Home Rehabilitation Center.

As a native and lifelong resident of Rockingham County, North Carolina, he attended the local public schools and was a graduate of Reidsville Senior High School, Class of 1979. This loving son, father, grandfather and brother was baptized into the fellowship of Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church. He was a factory worker and a proud Marine.

"Lea Boy," as he was affectionately referred to by family and close friends, was known for never meeting a stranger and for his love of people, especially family. We thank God for his impacting presence and precious memories to forever cherish. To God Be The Glory!

His legacy of love and faithfulness will forever be treasured in the hearts and memory of those who survive: his loving mother, Barbara Graves Price; his daughter, Audree Lea Hatchett (Justin Hatchett); and his grandchildren, Kevin Lewis Mayweather III, Jordan Lea Hatchett, and Madison Kalee Hatchett. In addition to his immediate family, Aubrey leaves behind many beloved aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever cherish his memory.

He was preceded in death by his father, James Stanley Lea, Sr., and his brother, James Stanley Lea Jr. (2021).

Expressions of Gratitude

We are so very thankful for the support and expressions of sympathy from our family, friends, and neighbors. Your kindness will always be remembered.
