His Story

On September 30, 1958, Ernest and Lucille White welcomed their beloved son, Kerry Leon White, into the world in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Kerry was raised in Tulsa, where he graduated from Nathan Hale High School and began building a life filled with hard work, laughter, and love for his family.

While attending college at NEO in Miami, Oklahoma, Kerry met and eventually married Kathy Grundy. To this union a son was born, Kerry Leon White II. Some years later, he married a second time to Gwyndlen Thompson, and to this union, a daughter was born. Kerra Diane White, who was always her daddy's heart. On April 26, 1997, Kerry was remarried to Claudia Abram. Their marriage brought together not only two lives but two families that would come to know Kerry as a generous, kindhearted, thoughtful, and devoted husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather.

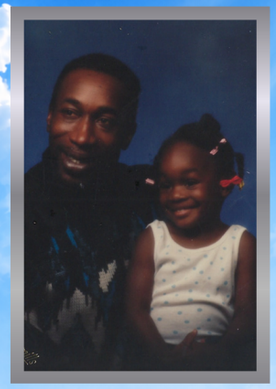

In addition to being a devoted family man, Kerry was deeply committed to his church and his faith. He served faithfully as a Lead Deacon at Greater Grace Temple, giving wholeheartedly of himself and remaining a dedicated member of the congregation for 22 years.

At the time of his passing, Kerry was employed by McIntosh Trucking, where he was much more than a valued employee. Through his dedication and the relationships he formed, he became a cherished member of the McIntosh family. His love for trucking led him to build something of his own, Square W Trucking, that will continue to operate in his honor, carrying his name and legacy.

Kerry was preceded in death by his father Earnest White, his mother, Lucille White, and his brother, Stanley White.

~Kerry White Leaves to Cherish his memory~
His wife of 30 years, Claudia; 2 sons, Kerry II and wife Sherry; Darrell (Tiger) French; and 2 daughters, Kerra Diane White and Cathy Terrell, husband Nathaniel. He also leaves to cherish his memory his brother, Michael White and wife Genevieve, and his sister, Wanda White-Long; 9 grandchildren, Cameo, Sean, Anthony, Andre, JaChé, Quincy, Malachi, Tori, and Tyler; and 16 great-grandchildren.

Precious Memories

Jesus whispered; Kerry answered.
Kerry took his flight in the middle of the night.
Some may think that he is gone,
but he will never leave my heart alone.
I wish I could see him in the Savior's embrace;
For he has now reached his resting place.
