

Life's Reflections

Mary Jane Stover, a child of the late Eddie Stover, Sr. and Cornelia Loynes Stover, was born on May 21, 1935, in Camden, South Carolina. She entered into eternal rest on Monday, February 23, 2026, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Mary was raised up in White Oak Baptist Church and completed her high school education at Jackson High School. Mary met and married her late husband, Brodies Stover and they decided to move their church membership to St. John Baptist Church. The couple were married for 65 years until Deacon Stover was called home November of 2020.

Mary was a faithful member of her church where she served in many roles including Sunday School teacher as well as the "Missionary, Ministers, Deacon, and Trustees Wives". Her favorite hobby was watching the game show network. Mary was employed at B. F. Goodrich, and Markette. She also spent time working at Baron Dekalb Elementary as a volunteer.

Mary is preceded in death by her husband, Brodies Stover, Sr.; three children, Brodies Stover, Jr., Barbara S. Jones and Marcus Stover; one granddaughter, Chrissy; five brothers, Daniel Stover, Murphy Stover, Henry Stover, Jimmy Stover and Eddie Stover, Jr.; one sister, Sallie S. Turner.

Mary is survived by: her children, Ronald Stover, Rosemary Stover of Camden, South Carolina and Linda Stover of Blythewood, South Carolina; ten grandchildren, Jacqueline Stover of Tampa, Florida, Marsell Stover of Germany, Celestia Jones of Camden, South Carolina, Monica and Monique Jones and Willette Garrick of Rock Hill, South Carolina, Shanay Stover of Charlotte, North Carolina, Marcus Stover of Kershaw, South Carolina, Jeremy Fletcher of Blythewood, South Carolina, and Marcus Stover, Jr. of Camden, South Carolina; six great-grandchildren, Jayden, Camren, Chantel, Tyriek, Chantel and Charlee; one daughter-in-law, Lorisa Stover; four sisters, Willie Mae (James) Newton, Lillie Benjamin, Della Peeples and Geneva (Thomas) Williams; sisters-in-law, Ivory (Albert) Bradford, Sheba Stover and Lillie Jennings; brothers-in-law, Johnny Stover and Johnny F. Turner; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And when the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let me go!
