The Broken Chain

I little knew that morning, God was going to call your name,
In life I loved you dearly, in death I do the same,
It broke my heart to lose you, you did not go alone
For part of me went with you, the day God called you home.
You left me beautiful memories, your love is still my guide,
And though we cannot see you, You're always at my side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Obituary

Sandra Levon Barber was born in Chicago, Illinois, on Monday, August 2, 1971, to Mr. Willie and Drenda Barber. Anyone who knew Sandra knew "To know her was to love her."

Sandra loved her entire family. She didn't play! She was a God-fearing woman who stood ten toes about her loved ones. Sandra was a warrior who fought ovarian cancer for four and a half years. On May 5, 2025, at 7:45 a.m., she received her wings.

Sandra attended Whetstone High School. She worked 28 long years at The Ohio State University. Sandra was very athletic; she loved cooking, dancing, and crocheting. Her greatest passion was being there for her Grandchildren. Sandra accepted Christ at an early age. She devoted her spirit to "So Help Me God Church of Christ" under the leadership of the late Ms. Mildred Lindsey (the founder) and pastor Tyrone Lindsey Sr. As an usher, she would "shhhhhhhhh" to ensure that all protocols were followed; what's understood doesn't need to be explained.

Sandra is preceded in death by Karon Barber Sr. (Son), Willie Barber Sr (Father), Willie Barber Jr (Brother), Angelia Barber (Sister) Helen Garner, Rose Bell Barber (Grandmother), Henry Walters, James Garner Sr, Homer Barber Sr (Grandfathers), Brenda Garner, Helen Garner, Shiquita Garner, Lula Bell Barber, Lisa Barber and Rose Barber (Aunts).
