

Scriptures – King James Version (KJV)

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

John 14:1-3

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

With Gratitude

The Lyles Family would like to thank everyone for their prayers, condolences, and kind deeds. Every act of kindness, no matter how great or small, is truly a testament of the love that we share for each other.

William Howard Lyles was born on April 21, 1928 to Mr. Curtis Lyles and Mrs. Vira Baxter Lyles in Chesnee, South Carolina. William grew up in Chesnee and made the journey to New Jersey as a young man. He had lived briefly in Delaware and South Jersey before making a home in Asbury Park.

William held many jobs, mostly in roadwork and construction. He spent many years, until retirement, working for Manzo Construction. He completed his own repair and renovation of his homes. Sometimes even supervising work at his daughter's home. William enjoyed wild game hunting with his buddies, attending van/truck/RV shows, and hanging around town with the fellas.

The joy and happiness in his life was his family. He would travel in his RV to South Carolina, Long Island, and other places for family reunions. Very close to his heart was his first wife Mrs. Annie Faye Lyles, his brothers Bobby, Robert, Cecil, Curtis, Austin, a sister Katherine, his second wife Mrs. Doris Lyles, and best friend Ms. Alberta Parrish; all whom preceded him in death.

William is survived by his sisters Sarah, Louvenia, Mary, Vira, and Martha; his brothers T.C. and Horace. As well as many nieces and nephews that he loved dearly.

William's children will always remember the love, care, and support that he has shown. Left to cherish these memories are: Vera (James) Jordan, La Verne Washington, Sheldan Johnson, Marilyn Henderson, Angela Lyles, Wendell D. (Joyce) Lyles, Charles (Harriet) Williams and Latrice Payne.

The grandchildren of William are: Jermaine Wise Snelling, Xavier Jose (Rachael) Lyles, Curtis Jones Jr., Carnell Jones, Nick Olliverre, and Justice Williams.

Great-grandchildren include: Devan, Chanel, TaTyana, Najhera, Atalla, Wise Jr., Jazea, Xavier, Alexis, Curtis III., Ciana, and My'Zhae.

Great-great grandchildren: Aubrey and Arianna.

A host of friends, neighbors, and extended family will forever be touched by William's life.
