

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters;
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake...
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over...
surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.....*

OFFICIANT

Rev. Chris Conditt
Hillside Christian Church

Audelio was born September 1, 1951, in Stamford, Texas to his parents, Santos and Jacinto Salinas.

For most of his life, Audelio worked in the construction industry, spending many years with Arnold Lovett Asphalt Repair. He was a hardworking man who took pride in what he did and in providing for his family.

Audelio had a special gift for working with his hands. He could grow just about anything and seemed to have the ability to fix nearly anything that needed repair.

He was a fun-loving man who enjoyed dancing and spending time relaxing with those he loved most. Above all, Audelio cherished time with his family, creating memories that will remain in their hearts for years to come.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother Jose Salinas, a sister Rosa Salinas, a son Benny Rubio and a son J. Matthew Salinas.

Audelio is survived by his daughters, Christina Salinas and Valerie Salinas; his sons, Jerry Rubio, Juan Salinas, Joe Rubio, Santos Salinas and Ralph Salinas; his sisters, Esperanza Hernandez and Lily Salinas, his brother Roy Salinas; and his many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
