Family Remembrances

Psalter Lesson	Psalm 23	Unison
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

New Testament Lesson	John 3:16-17	Unison
For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

Kay Willis

JULY 28, 1938 - FEBRUARY 3, 2025

Kay Willis, 86, of Pine Knoll Shores, North Carolina, passed away peacefully at Carteret Health care on Monday, February 3, 2025.

Kay was born on July 28, 1938, in Oneonta, New York, to the late Herman and Agnes Wells. She initially pursued her passion for learning by obtaining her bachelor's degree, which led her to inspire numerous students during her teaching career. After several years in the education field, she transitioned to a successful career in real estate, where she flourished for 40 years. Always one to stay busy, she worked all throughout her golden years.

A woman of deep faith, Kay loved the Lord and attended several local churches throughout her life. Her little home in Pine Knoll Shores was her personal sanctuary which she regarded as her little piece of heaven. Kay was also proud to be a member of the Willis Family, who played a significant role in founding the Squatters Restaurant and Campground in Salter Path.

An avid cook, with a fondness for seafood, Kay often delighted family and friends with her delicious creations. Cooking wasn't just a hobby for her, it was a way to bring people together, and she cherished every shared meal and laughter.

Above all, Kay was a devoted mother and a proud grandmother, whose love knew no bounds. She leaves behind not just memories, but a legacy of kindness, warmth, and love that will forever remain in the hearts of those she touched.

Those remaining to cherish her memory are her sons, Kevin Willis of Indian Beach, NC and Kelly Willis (Michelle) of Wilmington, NC; sister, Beth Shultis (Ed) of Schenevus, NY; and grandchildren, Shane Willis and Erin Willis.

In addition to her parents, Kay was preceded in death by her brothers, Dick Wells and Ken Wells.

As an expression of sympathy, flowers are welcome, or memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
