Obituary

Sis. Charlene Mason was born on February 13, 1970, to Phyllis Mason. She was the youngest of four siblings: Denise Childs, Rodney Boyd, Renee Boyd, and Valerie Boyd. Though the youngest, Charlene had a special gift for creating and cherishing family memories—this was truly her muse.

Charlene attended Port Wentworth Elementary School in Savannah, Georgia; Mercer Middle School in Savannah, Georgia; and later graduated from Sarah J. Hale High School in Brooklyn, New York, in June 1988. Education was very important to Charlene, and she remained committed to furthering her studies. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Psychology from the University of Buffalo. During her time at University of Buffalo she was part of the UB Gospel Choir as well as being a Q-Pearl (sister organization to Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc.).

Following her education, Charlene began a distinguished career with the United Probation Officer Association, where she served as part of the Investigation Division. She dedicated more than 20 years of faithful service, demonstrating integrity, compassion, and a deep commitment to justice and community service.

From birth, Charlene was introduced to the United House of Prayer, where she remained a faithful servant until her final days. The United House of Prayer was her saving grace. She served devotedly as an usher under Daddy Madison, Daddy Bailey, and her present-day leader, Daddy Cunningham.

Sis. Mason was a true worker in the Kingdom, often saying she was “working the program.” She lived those words daily. Known lovingly as the “sausage lady,” Charlene had a passion for selling and encouraged everyone around her to do the same. Her dedication extended beyond that—she enjoyed organizing programs that honored seniors and hosting raffles to support the community. Charlene's support for those in need was unwavering and heartfelt.

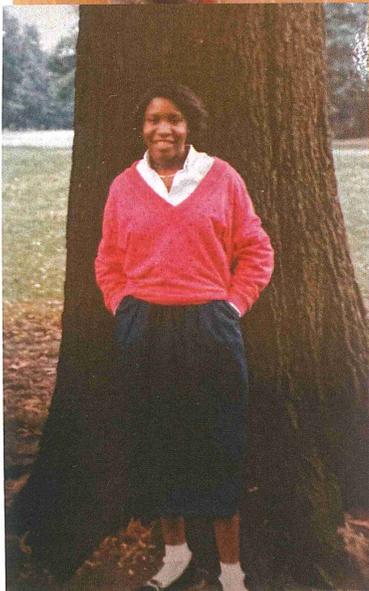

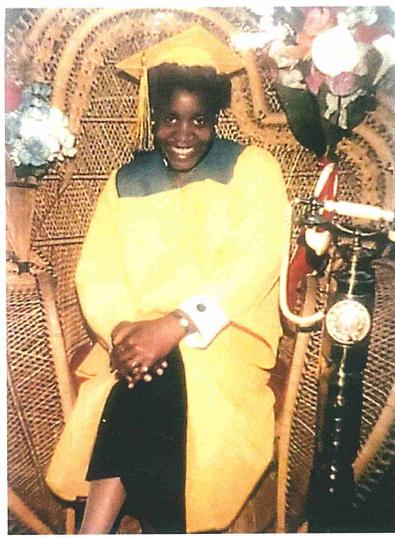

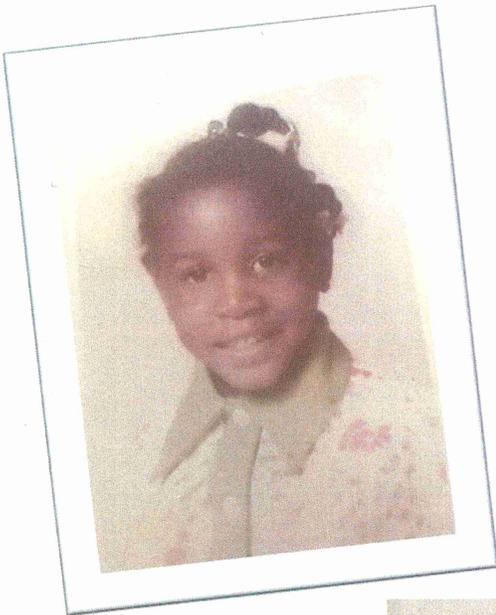

Sis. Mason was a true mama bear—not only to her daughter, but to all who knew her. She was known for her nurturing spirit, paired with a direct and honest nature. She spoke her mind with love, and when she had something to say, you listened. Her unrelenting love for her family, her community, and the Lord was not just her legacy—it was her birthright. Her smile could light up a room, and her laughter was contagious.

Sis. Charlene Mason was preceded in death by her mother, Phyllis Mason, and her sister, Renee Boyd. She leaves behind cherished memories with her siblings: Valerie Boyd; Rodney Boyd; and Denise (Walter) Childs of Keysville, Georgia. She also leaves to treasure her memory her beloved daughter, Heaven Mason, along with a host of nieces, nephews, godchildren, cousins, and friends who will forever carry her love in their hearts.

Her favorite song, “Bridge Over Troubled Water,” was a reflection of her life—always standing as a source of comfort, strength, and support for others, just as she so faithfully did for everyone she loved.

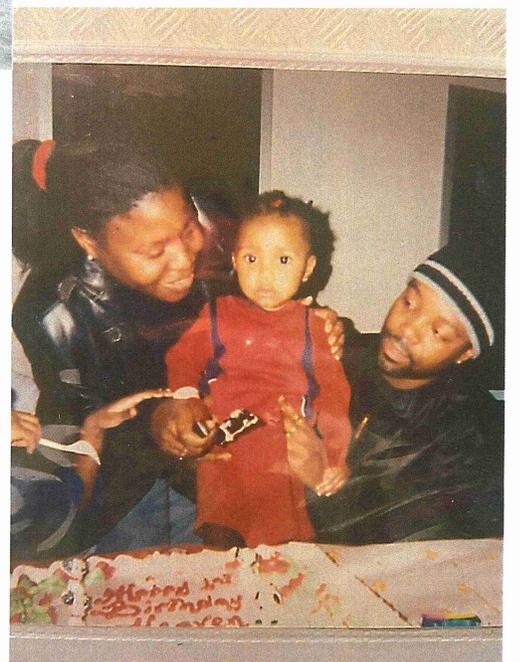

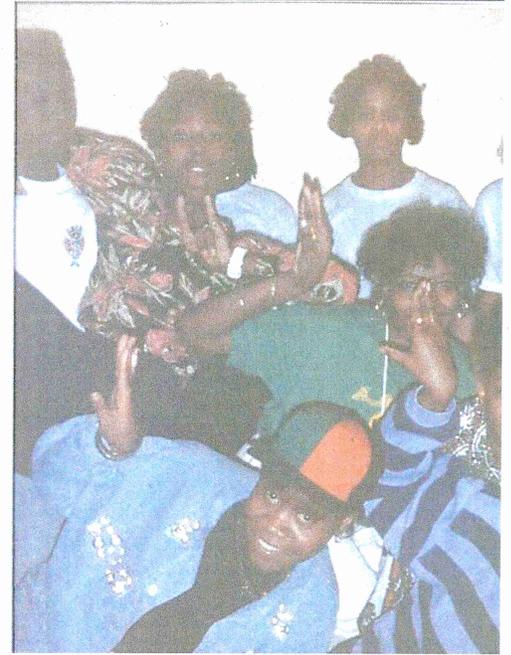

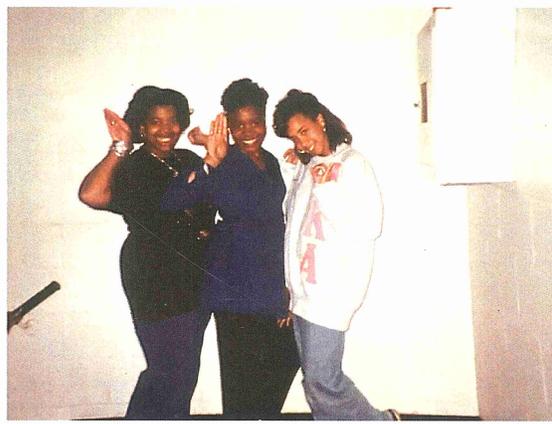

Lovingly Submitted by the Family

GOD hath not promised
 Skies always blue.
 Flower strewn pathways
 All our lives through;
 God hath not promised
 Sun without rain,
 Joy without sorrow,
 Peace without pain.
 But GOD hath promised
Strength for the day,
 Rest for the labor,
 Light for the way.
 Grace for the trials
 help from above,
 Unfailing sympathy.
Undying love.

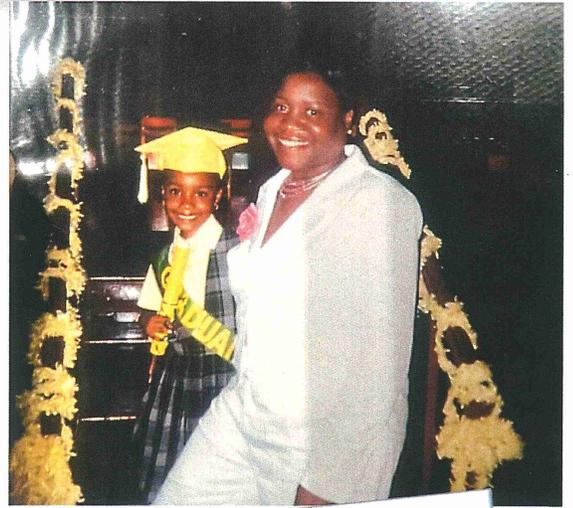

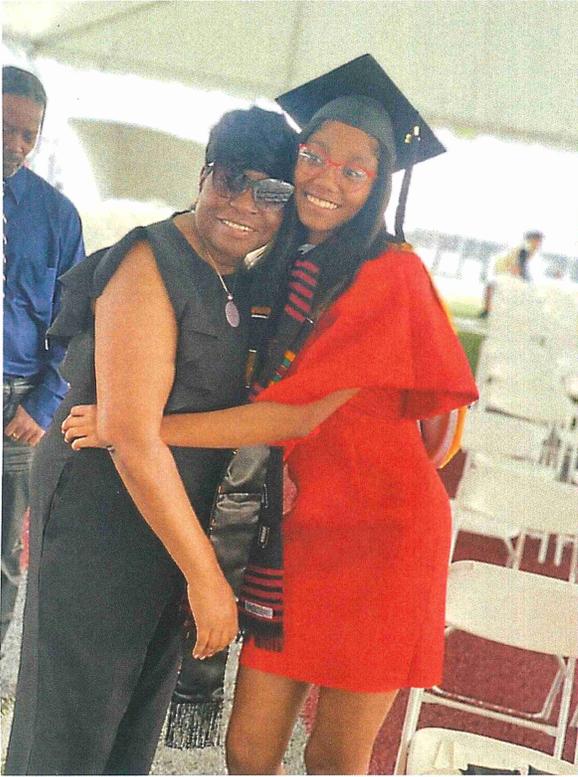

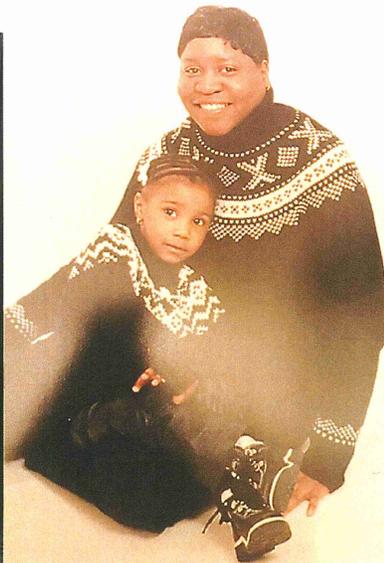

THE LOVE OF A FAMILY
MAKES LIFE
Beautiful

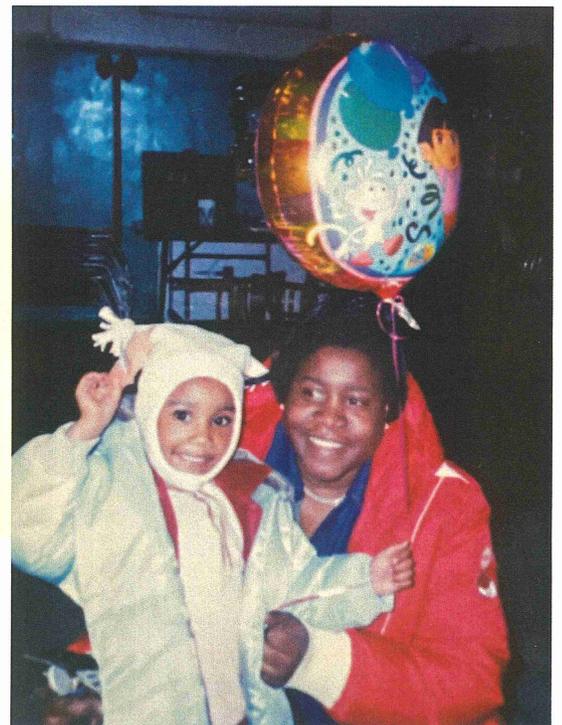

Just The Two Of Us

A mother's love is the heart of a family

Thank you, Lord for the love, and the MEMORIES

*There are no words to heal the ache,
No simple path the heart can take.
But know her love still lights your way,
Still holds you close, from day to day.*

*In every breeze, in every song,
Her spirit walks with you; strong.
She lives within the love she gave;
every time she held you close and the times she prayed.*
