

Stanley William Weiss was born to William and Alma (Eiteneier) Weiss on October 3, 1946 in Mobridge. He was baptized and confirmed at Zion Lutheran Church. He grew up on a farm south of Akaska attending Zion Lutheran School and graduating from Selby

High School. Farming and ranching was his chosen occupation on the home farm. Stanley was a lifelong member and served in different positions of Zion Lutheran Church. He was a member of the Akaska Fire Department, and also volunteered for many organizations. He enjoyed having family come to visit and showing them different things in the area.

Stanley is survived by his sister, Adeline Creviston, Yankton, two nephews, Ryan (Michelle) Creviston and Paul (Amanda) Creviston, Sioux Falls, great nieces and nephew, Brooke, Dylan, Bella, Sophia, and Bree, all from Sioux Falls, and cousins in Akaska and Eagle Butte.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William and Alma Weiss, sister, Arlene Schoeneck, brother-in-law, Gary Creviston and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters:

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake...

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

For Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table

before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou annointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over...Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever...
