JANEY'S STORY

Janey Middleton was born on July 14, 1946, in Bonneau, South Carolina, to the late Sam and Minnie Wright Middleton. She transitioned from this life on May 10, 2025, in San Diego, California.

A proud graduate of Russellville High School, Class of 1964, Janey continued her education and earned an Associate Degree in General Studies from San Diego Junior College. She dedicated 31 years of service as an Executive Assistant at the University of San Diego before retiring in 2020.

Janey had a heart for service and community. She loved organizing events for her church and family gatherings, always bringing people together with joy and purpose. In her later years, she enjoyed gardening, often sharing her harvest with her neighbors.

Janey was a faithful member of New Assurance Baptist Church in San Diego, CA and served as a Trustee Board Officer.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted son, Emory Stilton Heard of San Diego, CA; her beloved sister, Edna Middleton Thompson of Moncks Corner, SC; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, family and friends. Janey also leaves behind two close companions, Jessie Washington James of San Diego, CA, and Cassandra Harrison of Los Angeles, CA; and several church members who shared a special bond with her.

Janey was the youngest of her siblings and was preceded in death by Ellic Middleton, Lucretia Middleton Freeman, Lelia Middleton Rollerson, Samuel Middleton, George Middleton, and Robert Middleton.

Janey's legacy of kindness, devotion, and grace will live on in the many lives she touched.
