

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."

Obituary

It is with heavy hearts and deep love that we announce the passing of our beloved Kim Thomas, who departed this life on March 3, 2025. She was a woman of grace, kindness, and unwavering devotion to her family and loved ones. Born on January 7, 1963, in San Francisco, California, to Lelia and Charles Graber, Kim dedicated her life to caring for those around her. She was the heart of our family—a source of unconditional love, wisdom, and strength. Her selflessness knew no bounds, and she touched countless lives with her gentle spirit, warm embrace, and kind heart. She always put the needs of others before her own, standing steadfast beside those she loved and offering unwavering support, comfort, and kindness to everyone who crossed her path. As a mother, she was our greatest teacher, guiding us with patience and love. She led by example, showing us the importance of compassion, resilience, and faith. Whether through comforting words or simple acts of kindness, she made the world a better place for those she loved.

A few years ago, she made the life-changing decision to dedicate herself to Jehovah, finding immense joy and purpose in her faith. On June 24, 2023, she was baptized alongside one of her best friends, Sheila—a moment that truly reflected her devotion and commitment. She remained a faithful and devoted Witness, sharing love, encouragement, and the hope of Jehovah's promises with all those around her.

She is preceded in death by her brothers Demetrius and Virgil Boyd; sisters Stachia and Lisa Graber; and her dear friends Ronald Lewis and Higgins Kelly, affectionately known as Paw-paw Kell-Kell. She is survived by her sister Sadrena Warner; brother-in-law Vernon Warner and Gregory Philips; brothers Botney Boyd and Jurado Graber; niece Leayonka Graber, whom she cherished from birth; children Jucobi and Laquisha Graber; grandchildren Leonte', Lil Cobi, Juleah, Jukayla, and Shariya Graber; and her beloved dog, Snack-snack. She also leaves behind a host of dear friends and extended family who will forever cherish her memory. She had many other grandchildren, as she was everybody's granny—even to the little kids on TV, some of whom she adopted to send money to.

Though we mourn her passing, we take comfort in the love she shared and the lasting impact she had on all who knew her. Her legacy of love and kindness will continue to live on in our hearts forever. Rest in Paradise, Mother. You will always be deeply loved and never forgotten, Fatty-Mama.
