

'Then Comes The Morning'

"After the winter-then comes the joy of spring
The new swelling buds, the wee birds that sing.
After the cold with its season of pain-
the long night is over-comes the morning again.

Weeping endures, but, for a season
for the questioning heart as it seeks for a reason
Will our hearts always ache? Does pain go on?
Will there once again be true laughter and praiseful song?

T'was an untimely sunset in the loneliest west
While life's sun overhead, offered, her very best.
Did the sunset beckon with a promising glow?
Did the Master claim what was once his own?

Ohh Yes!

For truly the Prodigal and the Saviour drew nigh God healed his repentant spirit, fought his battle, and wrote his "name" in the sky.

"Joyfully" - We "will" sing. "Midst" our sorrow, "with"
thanksgiving
to our Great God Of Mercy - So loving and forgiving.

Troublesome questions, no longer cloud our sorrow
As with joy we'll endeavour to meet him
on the "Bank of Tomorrow."

For new hope is stirred as God's hands eases the pain
Telling us that surely "yes", after the night
"then" cometh the morning again."

Marcia Caroline Wiebe

July 12, 1939 – March 23, 2026

Marcia "Caroline" Wiebe was born to Jacob and Linda Loetkeman on July 12, 1939, at Swalwell, AB. She passed away on March 23, 2026, in Vernon, BC.

Mom, with her family, moved from Linden, AB, to Abbotsford, BC. At the age of 12, she gave her heart to God and was baptized into the Church of God in Christ Mennonite. Although she had her struggles, she loved the Lord. She spent many hours enjoying listening to services and church singing.

She met the love of her life, our Dad, at 14 years of age, and they were married five years later on July 28, 1958. Their reception was held in the evening under the snowball trees. It was a very hot day. Dad was busy in the chicken barn until the last minute and was just about late for the wedding. Mom was a loving companion as well as a strong support to Dad in his medical career.

They spent many enjoyable times working together and made lasting friendships in their various locations of work.

Mom and Dad had a special place in their hearts and home for the needy and less fortunate, especially Josh.

Mom developed a gift for drawing and poetry at a young age, which she continued throughout her life. She spent many hours communing with God, and her poetry was a reflection of that. All throughout her life, but especially as of late, Mom often mentioned that she would wake up with a song that would stay with her all day.

In Mom's later days, she kept herself busy putting scrapbooks together for her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed spending time in her sewing and craft room. Mom also loved crocheting and would make pretty dishcloths that she would share with us and others.

Mom and Dad enjoyed sixty-eight years together, and were blessed with three sons and four daughters.

Myron (Ruth) Neilburg, SK, Linton of Quesnell, BC, Lorne (Sonya) of Neilburg, SK; her four daughters: Cheryl of Neilburg, SK, Grace (Dallen) of Salmon Arm, BC, Jane (Dan) of Neilburg, SK, and Marcia of Armstrong, BC; Extended Family, Linda Mellin, Pat Wiebe, and Richard Toews.

We all look forward to meeting Mom in heaven.
