

Lois Beatrice (Makes Trouble) Chasing Hawk, was born June 4, 1936 at Dupree, SD to James & Lillian (Clown) Makes Trouble. Lois and her sisters Lorraine (Charging Eagle) and Esther (Chasing Hawk) grew up in Firesteel and attended school at the Cheyenne Agency School. She married Cecil Chasing Hawk and together they had 6 boys, Benedict, Blaine, Leonard "Foss", Edwin, Justin, and Wade, they settled in along the Cherry Creek near Red Scaffold, SD.

Lois was a housewife and Cecil was a ranch hand, they were proud of their boys and the cowboy lifestyle they followed with all competing in rodeos. She was featured in a poster and pamphlets for BIA's national probate campaign. She traveled to Washington D.C. with a trip arranged by Jim Hunt, she toured all monuments, White House and met with law makers, at the White House, she asked, "where's Obama?". Lois always enjoyed being around her many relatives, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Over the years many friends of her sons continue to call her "mom".

Lois battled health problems in her later years and resided in the Medicine Wheel Village Nursing Home, she was diagnosed with cancer in 2025 and she battled courageously until her passing. The family is grateful for all of the staff at the Medicine Wheel Village for their caring and compassionate care, they have all been wonderful throughout this difficult time.

Lois is survived by her children, Leonard "Foss" Chasing Hawk, Eagle Butte, Ed (Danielle) Chasing Hawk, Sturgis, SD and Connie Chasing Hawk, Eagle Butte. Grand children, Markata Chasing Hawk, Cyle (Corey) Chasing Hawk, Dustin Ward, Robby Chasing Hawk, CJ Pesicka (Alyssa) and numerous great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents Jim and Lillian Makes Trouble, husband Cecil, sons Benedict, Blaine, Justin and Wade, granddaughter Jaymie Chasing Hawk. Sisters Lorraine (Steve) Charging Eagle, Esther (Allen) Chasing Hawk and brother Alrick Leroy Makes Trouble.

HONORARY BEARERS

The family of Lois gives thanks to the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe, Dr. Margaret Upell and the staff of The Medicine Wheel Nursing Home for the compassion, respect, and care they shared with her. We also recognize her many relatives, friends, caregivers, spiritual leaders, and all who walked beside her throughout her life journey

Each person who offered a prayer, shared a kind word, extended a helping hand, or spent time in her presence became part of her story. Today, we lift our hands in gratitude and honor all those who walked with her through life's journey, cared for her, and shared in the blessings of her life
