

Remember

When my life is over, and I've passed on, and you stop and think of me

Remember all the good times and how they used to be,
Remember the times we laughed, Remember the times we cried,

Remember there's life around you, even though I had to die.
Remember secrets shared, Remember promises spoken.

And remember that time will mend all things -
Even hearts that now are broken.

Remember when we were young, though you've gotten up in years,

And muster up a smile, In the mist of all your tears.

Remember there's tomorrow with all your hopes and dreams.

And don't let death make you forget, how good that life can be.

So, remember, please remember, All the memories that you can

And store them in your heart, From now until the end.

Obituary

Joseph Darnell Osborne, III, was born on October 31, 1955, in Cincinnati, Ohio, and passed away peacefully on August 17, 2025, surrounded by the love of his family. He was the first of six children born to the late Jannie Christine and Joseph D. Osborne II.

Joseph was raised in Cincinnati, Ohio, and lived a life shaped by resilience, service, and devotion to those he loved. From 1973 to 1975, he proudly served in the United States Navy as an Aerial Surveillance Repairer, traveling the world. After the military, he worked at Rumpke and later moved on to Nutone, where he remained until its closure.

Above all, Joseph found his greatest purpose in being a father. As a devoted single parent, he raised his two daughters with unwavering love, sacrifice, and care.

Joseph will be remembered for the passions that brought him happiness—casting a line while fishing, cooking meals that brought people together, and celebrating life with family and friends. He loved music and a good party.

His life was a testament to resilience, and he leaves behind a legacy of love and strength that will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

Joseph was met at the gates of heaven by his parents, Joseph and Jannie Osborne; his sister Auderienne Murray; and nephews, Leon Osborne and William Murray, III.

Joseph leaves to cherish his memory: his two daughters: Anita Hopkins-Smith (Shea Smith) and Ebony Hopkins. Five grandchildren: Janiya, Jeremiya, Jovanni, Jakira, and Jaliah. Three sisters: Karen Brown (Richard Brown), Cheryl Powell (Daryl Powell), and Yvette Bennie. One brother, Markanius Osborne (Cheri Osborne). Along with seven nieces: Lucretia Osborne, Mamie Osborne, Shannon Osborne, Ann Olamiju (Tola Olamiju), Sandra Moore (Micheal Moore), Melba Goodman, and Domanik Bailey (Aaron Bailey). One nephew, Jerome Osborne, and a host of great nephews, nieces, cousins, in-laws, and other family and friends.
