

In Loving Memory

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again.*

*No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.*

*Our hearts still ache with sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one will ever know.*

*But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.*

*Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.*

Corrine graduated from Menno High School and went on to graduate from Sacred Heart School of Nursing. She met Martin Kubal and they were married May 24, 1952. She then worked several years at the Scotland Good Samaritan Home, the Human Services Center, then Sacred Heart Monastery, finishing her nursing career in Home Health, which she thoroughly enjoyed.

Corrine was noted for her cooking and wonderful baking of kolaches, kuchen and breads, which she served to many over the years. She was also an avid gardener and loved her roses. She enjoyed watching and playing games with her grandchildren. She was involved in numerous organizations in the Scotland area and was a devoted member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.
