

Nacida en Mérida, Venezuela, Carmencita “Mi bella” fue una mujer de profunda fe cuya vida brilló con bondad y propósito. Guiada por su amor a Dios, a la Virgen de Guadalupe y a la Virgen del Carmen, se movía con gracia, calidez y una sonrisa constante que iluminaba cada lugar.

Excelente hija, hermana, esposa, madre, abuela y amiga muy querida, Carmencita también fue una dentista excepcional que cuidaba con ternura a pacientes de todas las edades, especialmente a los niños. En su hogar, su espíritu maternal se extendía a un jardín florido y a incontables comidas familiares aderezadas con su amor y entusiasmo por experimentar en la cocina saludable.

Su integridad firme, sabiduría aguda y consejo compasivo levantaban el ánimo de quienes la rodeaban, mientras que su rechazo absoluto a la injusticia y el drama ofrecía un ejemplo inspirador. Ya fuera afrontando los retos de la vida con determinación silenciosa o brindando consuelo en los momentos difíciles, el corazón generoso e independiente de Carmencita jamás flaqueó.

La recuerdan con cariño sus hijos, nietos, familia extendida y los numerosos amigos cuyas vidas tocó. Aunque lamentamos su partida, celebramos una existencia marcada por la fe, el servicio y un amor sin límites, un legado perdurable que sigue guiándonos y reconfortándonos a todos. Te Amaremos por siempre mi bella Carmencita. Luz eres y en Luz te convertirás.
