*From a sister's heart and a nephew's smile,
We send our love across each mile.
Through every laugh and every tear,
We hold you close, we keep you near.
A sister's bond—strong, ever true,
A nephew's giggle—sunlight and dew.
Together we stand, both big and small,
Family forever, through it all.
For every moment, near or apart,
You live within our beating heart.
From hands once small to hearts that grow,
Our love is deeper than you'll ever know.*

*— With all our love,
Your sister and nephew*

Acknowledgement

His Story

Shawn Kendell Taylor, born on February 28, 1983, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, he passed away on November 5, 2025. He was the beloved son of Dorothy Taylor and Chester Henderson, both of whom preceded him in death.

He received his education in the Philadelphia School District and furthered his studies at Lincoln Technical Institute, focusing on Automotive Technology, followed by Business Management courses at the Community College of Philadelphia. Throughout his educational journey, he obtained multiple certifications that reflected his dedication to personal and professional growth. Before he was disabled he enjoyed being a mechanic, enjoyed and fixing cars.

Shawn was known for his infectious humor and ability to make those around him laugh. Memorable moments were often shared with his cousin Bill, where their playful rap performances brought joy to family gatherings. His deep love for his nephew, Taron Taylor, was evident in the time they spent together, cherishing countless conversations and moments that strengthened their bond. Sundays were particularly special, as Shawn would call his Aunt Mary to inquire about her Sunday dinner, showcasing his appreciation for family meals and gatherings. He also shared a unique connection with his cousin Dina, as they engaged in lighthearted arguments that would seamlessly transition into discussions about dinner plans.

Shawn was preceded in death by: his parents, Dorothy Taylor and Chester Henderson and his baby sister, Shonda.

Shawn is survived by his sister Tina Taylor, his nephew Taron Taylor, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who will deeply miss him. As we remember Shawn, let us celebrate his life, his laughter, and the love he shared with all those fortunate enough to know him.

Forever IN OUR Hearts
