

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Audrey Maria Hill was born to Mildred and Edward Hill on December 15, 1947, in Birmingham, Alabama. She was the oldest of four siblings. Audrey's father and her three brothers—Andre, Broderick, and Kelvin—preceded her in death.

Audrey joined First Antioch Baptist Church at an early age. She loved Antioch and sang in two choirs, as well as served on the usher board. After Antioch closed, she became a member of Zion Baptist Church, where she continued her service as an usher.

She graduated from Hughes High School in Cincinnati, Ohio. Audrey worked for Kenner Toys as an assembler before moving on to Siemen-Allis, where she worked for over 20 years as a spot welder. Her father, Edward, and her brother, Andre, taught her to read blueprints, which helped her excel in her career.

Audrey was high-spirited and loved to talk, laugh, tell jokes, and dance. She also had a terrific appetite, especially for home-cooked meals. She and her brother Andre often entered dance contests at the Diplomat in Cincinnati, frequently taking home prizes.

Audrey was a generous soul who helped many people in various ways—whether at work, in her church, or in her neighborhood. She loved God, her family, and especially her two children.

Audrey entered eternal rest and is survived by her mother, Mildred Hill; her children, DeShawn and Raymond; a close relative, Sonora; her uncle, Paul Patruch; her grandchildren, Rayna, Allen, Bryant, Alex, Keion, Durrell, and Mona; her great-grandchildren, Amia, Aniyah, Braxton, and Myles; and a host of other family and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
 And the sun has set for me,
 I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
 Why cry for a soul set free!
 Miss me a little - but not for long
 And not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love that we once shared,
 Miss me, but let me go.
 For this journey that we all must take
 And each must go alone;
 It's all a part of the Master's plan
 A step on the road to home.
 When you are lonely and sick at heart
 Go to the friends we know,
 And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
 Miss me, but let me go.
