Shakespeare said: "the entire world is a stage. At birth we make our entrance, at death we make our exit."

Thursday, June 26th 2025. Connie took her final bow after an award winning performance...the eagle was waiting and took her on a pinnacle of its wings and with grace...took her home.

Connie Lavern Bolden-Chavez stepped on the stage of life December 11, 1960 in Las Vegas, Nevada to the late Otha Lee and Charles Finley, Sr. she was the 10th of 14 children.

Connie attended schools throughout the Clark County School District. Connie graduated from C.O Bastian High School in Caliente, Nevada. Connie was employed as Activities Director Assistant at Cheyenne Care Center and eventually decided to retire early.

Connie married the Love of her life Roberto Chavez of 30 years.

Connie accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age at Zion Methodist Church, where she was a faithful member singing in the choir. Connie later followed Rev Marion D. Bennett in 2004 to ZIMC where she was one of their main soloist. She worked closely with the youth during the holidays to ensure that youth was provided for until God called her from labor to reward. Connie appreciated life and enjoyed her family and friends. Over the years Connie became well-known as she was committed to her fundraising and her charity in the Las Vegas community. FINAL RESTING PLACE

Bunkers Memory Gardens Cemetery

7251 West Lone Mountain Road, Las Vegas, NV 89129

When tomorrow starts without me And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes Are filled with tears for me
I wish so much you wouldn't cry The way you did today
While thinking of the many things We didn't get to say
I know how much you love me As much as I love you
And each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand And said my place was ready
In Heaven far above And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love But when I walked through Heaven's gate
I felt so much at home When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne He said this is eternity And all I promised you
Today your life on earth is past But here it starts anew
I promise no tomorrow For today will always last
And since each day's the same way There's no longing for the past
So when tomorrow starts without me Don't think we're far apart or every time you think of me
I'm right here in your hear
When tomorrow starts without me

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral arrangement; if so we saw it there;
Perhaps you spoke the kind words that any friend could say;
Perhaps you could not be there but the thought of us that day;
Whatever you did to ease our pain, we know this much to be true
You gave us comfort in our hour of need. And for that,
We say THANK YOU!!!

A special thank you to the
Zion Independent Methodist Church Family & Rev. Mike Kirkland.
