

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Donna Kay Wiedeman

Donna Kay Wiedeman, 76, of Sedalia, MO, passed away on Saturday, January 27, 2024, at Sylvia G. Thompson Residence Center in Sedalia. She was born on December 7, 1947, in Clinton, IL, the daughter of Clyde Reed and Edna (Provines) Reed, who preceded her in death.

On January 9, 1971, in Clinton, IL, she was united in marriage to David Wiedeman, who resides in the home.

Donna was a 1965 graduate of Clinton Community High School in Clinton, IL. She then went on to further her education at the University of Illinois-Champaign, where she earned her BS Degree in Medical Technology. She later earned her MBA from Central Missouri State University-Warrensburg and an AA Degree from State Fair Community College-Sedalia.

Donna was a very active member of the First Christian Church Disciples of Christ. She served as a Deacon and Elder and volunteered in many capacities, whether painting, sewing, or going on mission trips. Donna worked at Bothwell Regional Health Center as a medical technologist for over 27 years. In the late 90's, she embarked on a second career as a computer programmer for Sprint in Overland Park, KS. She later returned to work as a medical technologist at Centerpoint Medical Center in Independence, where she retired.

Donna enjoyed sewing, traveling, and DIY projects around both the home and investment 'flips.'

In addition to her husband, Donna is survived by a son, Ryan Wiedeman (Amy Elkins) of Sedalia; two grandchildren, Clara and Kai Wiedeman; two sisters, Kathy Thorp of Clinton, IL, and her twin sister, Doris Wick (Dr. James) of Denver, CO.

Donna's family especially recognizes the Sylvia Thompson Residence Center Memory Unit and 600 wing staff for the joy & care they brought to Donna in her time of need.
