Obituary

Ruth Ann Kirtley was born on March 31, 1928 in Bessemer, Alabama to the late Ollis Wilson and Flora Fowlkes.

She moved from Bessemer, Alabama to Covington, Kentucky and attended William Grant High School where she graduated.

She entered into eternal rest Sunday, June 6, 1993 at the Vencor Hospital, Detroit, Michigan.

She leaves to cherish her memories: one daughter, Patricia Lockhart (Detroit, Michigan); three sons, James Wilson, Ronald Amos (Cincinnati, Ohio) and Kenneth Wilson; one brother, Willie Wilson (Cleveland, Ohio); six sisters, Ollie Harris (Detroit, Michigan), Annette Morgan (Chattanooga, Tennessee), Gwendolyn Saunders (Cleveland, Ohio), Sonya Harrison (Tuskegee, Alabama), Wilma Bobo (Los Angeles, California) and Bennie Owens (Detroit, Michigan); three granddaughters, Ronja, Tonja and Brittaney; three grandsons, Jason, Ronald Jr. and Antoine; one aunt, Reba Williams and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*You reached out and was touched
God saw you were getting weary.
So he did what he thought best.
Death beckoned unto you with
Outstretched hands and
Whispered softly of unknown land.
Into the valley that's unknown
You were not afraid to go.
Although it's path you do not know.
So you took death's hand
And journeyed to the promise land.
But a precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.*
